MARINE DISASTER
OFF NANTUCKET

Wreckage Was Sighted by the British Bark Stranger Which Arrived Today

BOSTON, June 26.—That a serious marine disaster took place south of Nantucket lightship four or five days ago is the belief of Captain Slawen, white of the British bark Stranger, who sighted today that he sighted much wreckage, including scores of wooden packing cases on June 23d.

The Stranger was on a voyage from Turks Island to this port when in latitude 40 north and longitude 70 west, she began passing through great quantities of wreckage. It was difficult to distinguish any particular bit of wreckage. Some packing cases were broken open and seemed to contain paper hat boxes. Stencilled names

BY SEVERAL MEN

After She Jumped Into
Ford St. Canal

Leona Daniels, about 32 years of age, jumped from the third story window of a tenement house in the rear of Undertaken Albert's establishment, in Little Canada, into Ford st. canal today. As several young men were in the water at the time they went to the woman's assistance and assisted her to shore. She was in a very serious condition and was taken to the Lowell hospital by a man named Rousel, who was passing in his carriage at the time. At the hospital it was stated that the woman was in a very serious condition, but it is expected that she will recover.

SENATOR JAMES FOR CHAIRMAN OF SUPERIOR COURT
DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION--NO
SESSION IS ENDED

BUSINESS DONE TODAY

Senator-elect Ollie James of Kentucky was named as permanent chairman of the democratic national committee at a meeting of the committee on permanent organization held today. Urey Wilson, secretary of the national committee, was defeated for secretary of the convention by E. E. Britton of Raleigh, N. C. William J. Bryan was offered the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions and declined to accept the position. Massachusetts delegates today launched the Gov. Foss boom for president. Many delegates are talking Senator Kern for president. The convention assembled shortly after 12 o'clock today and decided, that after hearing several speakers, adjournment would be to 8 o'clock tonight when the committee on credentials will report.

CONVENTION HALL, Baltimore,

June 26.—Delegates filtered into the big hall today. With but a scattered attendance at the floor at 10.30 a. m. a haze of heat seemed to fill the big building and give promise to a sweltering day's proceedings.

Floor and galleries were stripped off just as soon as the delegates struck the close atmosphere of the hall. Hundreds of palm leaf fans fluttered throughout the building. Galleries and floor filled up very slowly but the sergeant-at-arms and the police had trouble keeping the aisles clear. Warned by the disorder of yesterday, Sergeant-at-arms Martin marshaled a squad of policemen and posted them in the galleries with orders to eject anyone creating a disturbance.

Some ten minutes before noon the Right Rev. John G. Murray of Baltimore, chaplain of the day, took his place on the platform.

At 12 o'clock the galleries were less than half filled. The delegates' seats were gradually filling up, however, and the floor was in confusion. Chairman Parker had not yet appeared but National Chairman Mack was on the platform.

The heat grew more intense as the big hall filled up.

At 1.12 P. M. Chairman Parker headed his desk with the gravel and the sergeant at arms aided by the police set out to clear the aisles. Slowly the confusion subsided and the convention got under way.

Bishop Murray offered prayer.

When the prayer was concluded Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana reported that the credentials committee would not be ready to report until 3 p. m. He said he would not make a motion to adjourn until that time, however, as he was sure the delegates would like "a little oratory." Later it was decided to adjourn to 3 o'clock.

Former Governor Folk of Missouri was introduced as the first orator. "The nominee of this convention will be the next president of the United States," said Mr. Folk. He eulogized Mr. Bryan at length. The delegates grew restless in the course of Folk's speech and Chairman Parker was forced to admonish them to be quiet. Folk's speech was very brief and Senator Murray of Maryland next was called upon.

He also predicted success for the democratic nominee and discussed the division in the republican party and declared that the motto of the Taff faction would be "We will meet and retrograde."

The motto of the Roosevelt party, he quoted as "Thou shalt not steal." "Our motto in this campaign will be, 'We shall progress,'" shouted Senator Rayner and the crowd cheered.

When Rayner concluded Chairman Parker asked for more speakers.

A shout for Congressman "Tom" Heelin of Alabama went up from the floor. But Mr. Parker introduced Congressman Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the house judiciary committee.

The delegates seemed to enjoy what one of them termed "a spell of spell-binding."

After he spoke for several minutes in denunciation of republican principles and pretensions, Mr. Clayton turned to democratic prospects.

"I do not know upon whom the nomination of this convention will fall," he said.

"Underwood," shouted an Alabama delegate.

"Clark," shouted a man from Missouri.

"Villison," came in answering chorus from New Jersey.

"Harmon," called the Oklahoms.

In a moment the entire convention hall was swept by the shouts and songs of the adherents of the different candidates. The band joined in the demonstration.

Chairman Parker made little effort to quiet the enthusiasts.

Mr. Clayton stood smiling at the speaker's desk.

And the melody of southern airs from the bands brought out increasing cheers.

Some of the delegates attempted to uproot the state standards but the policemen by quick work prevented this. The aisles became choked by delegates and it seemed that many of the spectators had invaded the delegates' section.

One man opened a big umbrella and started a parade but was headed off.

By this time Chairman Parker and the sergeant-at-arms were making frantic but vain efforts to restore quiet.

"New Jersey, please sit down," called a deputy sergeant-at-arms.

"Missouri, please give the speaker a chance," called another.

Mr. Clayton at last made himself heard above the din.

He declared that whoever the candidate was he would be the next president of the United States.

State Chairman Riley of Massachusetts was the next introduced and spoke briefly on general issues, making a plea for legislation for the betterment of labor and concluded with an endorsement of Clark.

A round of cheers greeted Senator Gore of Oklahoma, who was next introduced. The third statesman was unable to proceed with his speech for some time because of the uproar.

"Let us have peace," said Mr. Gore in the course of his talk. "Let us have peace at any price, at any sacrifice, save that of honor. Let us here put every democrat under bonds to keep the peace."

A burst of applause greeted this sentiment.

"Nothing can save the republican party from self slaughter except democratic suicide," declared Mr. Gore. "We cannot live half progressive and half reactionary. Theodore Roosevelt endeavored to breathe the breath of life of moderate progress into the petrified remains of the republican party. He failed. The mummy would not move."

Senator Gore closed with a plea for harmony which called out much enthusiasm.

"Follow democrats," he said, "let the candidate of this convention be your candidate."

John Temple Graves of Georgia and New York, came next on the long list of orators.

Former Governor Campbell of Ohio denounced the republican party in no uncertain terms. He was the last speaker.

An effort was made from the floor to upset the arrangement for tomorrow's session and adjourn the convention until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The attempt failed and at 2.15 the convention adjourned until 3 p. m.

THE PLATFORM

BYRAN WANTS IT DELAYED UNTIL NOMINATIONS ARE MADE

BALTIMORE, June 26.—As soon as the committee convened Mr. Bryan moved that presentation of the platform be deferred until after the convention had nominated a presidential candidate. Sen. Rayner seconded the proposition. He spoke at some length regarding a progressive platform and particularly in reference to the tariff and direct election of senators on which plank there was found to be a division of sentiment. The proposal would have to go to the convention if approved by the committee.

Motions for New Trials in Ten Cases Were Heard by Judge Stevens Today

Judge Stevens of the superior court sat this morning for the last time during this term. There was no case to go to trial, but the court heard motions for new trials in about ten cases, among them being that of Lamarre vs. The Guarantee Construction Co., in which a large verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff; the case of Stearns vs. Long, in which a verdict was rendered for the defense, and the case against the Tremont Building Trustees of Boston, who were ordered to pay $15,000 for the death and conscious suffering of a Boston resident. The judge, however, withheld his decision until a later date, and court adjourned at 1 o'clock.

This evening the jurymen, judge and court officials will attend a banquet, which will be held at D. L. Page's dining room. The meal will be served at 7 o'clock and will be followed by speeches and an entertainment program.

COUPLE WED IN AUTO JUST ACROSS STATE LINE

Pastor Stands in Front Seat of Machine Operated by Butcher in White Frock

HAVERHILL, June 24.—A marriage in an automobile just over the state line in New Hampshire after a hair-raising ride from this city and then back again at still greater speed is behind the announcement yesterday made by Rev. Dr. Sanford D. Wolfe, pastor of the South Christian church, that he had married William Tasher of Pittsfield, N. H., and Miss Iva Fletcher of Haverhill, N. H.

Late Monday afternoon the couple arrived in this city and, armed with a marriage license obtained in New Hampshire, the groom and bride, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Roberts, Jr., who met them on arrival, drove in a hack to the residence of the minister on Jackson street.

Mr. Wolfe said the marriage license was useless in this state, and City Clerk W. W. Roberts was appealed to in the hope of obtaining a special permit, but this was impossible. The couple, who had planned on remaining here only long enough to be married, having purchased their tickets for a bride trip to New York and Philadelphia, became shrimed.

Dr. Wolfe then remembered that he possessed a permit to marry in New Hampshire and this solved the dilemma. Mr. Roberts telephoned Walter N. Atwood, who runs a provision store on Jackson street, and what is more important he asked an automobile. Mr. Atwood answered "Yes" over the wire and, dressed in his white butcher's frock, he hastened with his auto to the home of the minister. The latter, with the couple and their attendants, jumped into the car and Mr. Atwood made record time in hastening to the state line at Haverhill, N. H.

The boundary stone was no sooner passed than the auto was stopped and standing in the front seat, Dr. Wolfe performed the marriage ceremony, with the couple and their attendants standing in the rear.

As soon as the ceremony was over Mr. Atwood turned his machine about and he broke all kinds of speed laws in heading for the railroad station, landing the couple there just in time to catch the train for Boston to connect with the train for New York.

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL TO BORROW $700,000

It Was Voted to Allow the Mayor to Expend $1000 for Fourth of July Celebration

All members of the municipal council, with the exception of Ald. Barrett who is attending the convention at Baltimore, were sharp on time at last night's meeting at which it was voted to borrow $700,000 in anticipation of taxes and to meet obligations coming due July 1. The council had met during the afternoon but the proposition to borrow was not touched upon at that time and the order was not drawn up until late in the afternoon. The order reads that $700,000 shall be paid in one year and $100,000 on or before December 31, 1912. Ald. Barrett thought the $100,000 ought to be paid by December 1 instead of 31. The mayor explained that the order read "on or before" December 31 and he thought it might well be left to the discretion of the commissioner of finance. He said it might embarrass the treasury to pay it before that time and if it could be paid before that time the finance commissioner would so notify the council.

The observance of July Fourth was taken up at the afternoon meeting and had passed over to last night. Mayor O'Donnell said he was in favor of a minor celebration, band concerts and entertainments for the children and he thought that about $500 would be enough. Ald. Brown, however, moved that the mayor be empowered to spend not more than $1000 for the day and it was so voted.

On motion of Mayor O'Donnell it was voted to ask the city solicitor to submit an ordinance controlling parading bodies in the city streets. The meaning of the ordinance will be that in order to parade it will be necessary to get permission from the proper authorities.

A hearing on petition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company for the removal of a pole in Church street was heard. Messrs. Tiffany and Moran appeared as respondents.

A hearing on petition of the same company for the relocation of a pole in East Merrimack street was held. No remonstrances.

Mr. Cummings said that men who wished telephones had complained that their business had been held up because of the discussion by the council of a proposed ordinance to ask a rental fee for the erection of poles. He cited the petition of a man living in Howard street, who had asked for power to run his business and who said his business had been interrupted on account of the delay. Mr. Cummings asked that some action be taken.

Mayor O'Donnell said he would have to vote against the petition. He said he did not believe in heavy powered overhead wires and had voted consistently against the granting of pole locations for that purpose. He said the wires ought to be underground. The order was put, and was passed, granting the Lowell Electric Light Corporation the right to erect a pole in Howard street.

Action on other petitions was deferred until the meeting of next Monday, at which time it is believed Mr. Barrett will be present.

Mayor O'Donnell discussed the observance of July Fourth. He said that he had stated that there would be no parade in the city and that no appropriation was made and in addition to that the water department had paid $2000, representing part of a debt owed the treasury by that department. Notwithstanding this he would suggest that $500 only be spent for the mild observance of the nation's natal day. The payment of $1000 to Mr. Rex, the financial expert, in a matter that is obsolete and with this in view and also the possibility of a future appropriation for Lucy Larcum, he could not see the wisdom of spending more than $500. The mayor said that the cost of the expert accountant's report would clean up the commissioner's fund of $1500.

Mr. Cummings thought that $500 was about the right amount of money to spend. Mr. Brown wanted to know if the matter of salaries had been considered. Mr. O'Donnell said it had not been.

Alderman Brown moved that the mayor be authorized to spend an amount not to exceed $1000 and it was so voted.

The mayor was authorized to spend $250 for the placing of a Lucy Larcum mark in proper condition.

The temporary loan question was brought up by the mayor. "It is a well known fact," he said, "that on July 1st the matter of renewing the $700,000 temporary loan comes up. The government of this year has no greater revenue than have governments in the past and we are not in a position to reduce that amount. The commissioner of finance has prepared an order for the borrowing of that amount, $500,000 for a term of one year, the remaining note for $200,000 to be paid on or before December 31, 1912.

The order was then read, it states that the notes shall be paid from the taxes, and that the notes shall not be valid unless authenticated by the First National bank of Boston.

In order to precipitate discussion the mayor moved that the order be adopted. Mr. Brown moved to have the $100,000 note made payable on or before the first day of December, but he was willing to leave it to the commissioner of finance as suggested by the mayor and the order was adopted.

Thomas G. Robbins, counsel for Chief E. S. Hosmer during the Green trial, asked that the city pay the council fees. The commissioner of finance has refused to pay upon the bill, believing that it should be considered by the council. Alderman Brown believed the bill should be paid out of the fire department appropriation.

Mayor O'Donnell said that there should be some ordinance framed governing the matter of parades in the public streets. He felt that no body of men should be allowed to parade unless official authority were given. He moved that the city solicitor be requested to draw up such an ordinance and submit it for approval, and it was so voted.

The mayor asked that the meeting of the committee on claims be deferred until some night next week.

Adjournment at 5:07 to Monday at 10 a. m.

Dr. O'Connor's Address
Dr. James B. O'Connor, of the school
board, in presenting the diplomas ad-

ressed the graduates, speaking as follows:

Dear Graduates: It is with feelings of the keenest delight that I assist at your graduation exercises today and I take great pride in being permitted to present to you your diplomas.

Let me congratulate you, dear graduates, let me congratulate you most heartily upon your large class, upon the excellence of today's program, and more especially upon the successful completion of your long course of study.

Your dear parents and your teachers, too, deserve to be congratulated because it is due to their continual efforts, their self-sacrificing devotion and careful instruction as much as to your own application, that you are publicly honored today. And they may justly be proud of you because you are now graduates of a public school that ranks as high as any in the land. The diploma that each one of you is about to receive is nothing less than a seal of public approval that is stamped upon your work of the past several years. It is, no doubt, the first work of public honor or testimonial of merit that you have received and while you should always prize it as such, and with pride should hang it in your home to be admired, still, as often as you gaze upon it, besides filling you with a just pride, it should also inspire you to new, better and nobler efforts in the future. That diploma should recall to your minds the lessons you have learned in these halls, so sacred to your childhood, and should fill you with the strong determination to apply those lessons better than ever before and mark you, I do not mean the lessons of geography, grammar or arithmetic, so much as the great lessons of sacrifice, industry and devotion to duty, all of which have been instilled into your young minds during these years. These, and not mere book learning, are the things that count most in the great battle of life. You have come to realize how much they entered into your present success; they will count still more in the future.

If you live up to these principles conscientiously, no matter what may be your walk in life, you must in the end succeed.

Go forth today, then, with that strong determination and let your aim be high. Consider no honorable position in this country too high for your young ambition. Remember the old English saying: "He who aims to hit the sun will shoot higher than he who aims only at a bush." Even if you can not at present continue your studies in the high school, do not give up hope. Many a school, do not give up hope. Many a successful professional man completed his studies only after long years of toil in the mills or workshops. Besides, there are still many golden opportunities in the city of Lowell for young men and young women of the right spirit. There are a hundred different courses of study in our various evening schools, any one of which you may choose and which will insure you all future success. Be determined to get all the schooling you can and make every sacrifice to do so. Have confidence, therefore; be true to the lesson of your youth; be faithful to your duty and I assure you the future will only bring honor to yourselves, to your parents, your teachers and your old alma mater, the Highland school.

In presenting your diplomas let me also extend to you my sincere good wishes for the future.

Kidney Trouble Over- come by the Great Treatment

I have been a sufferer for years with kidney and bladder trouble and took almost everything a drug store contained, without obtaining any benefit. I suffered so that I could not sleep, was always dizzy and had a headache all the time. I saw one of your advertisements and as a last resort, decided to try your Swamp-Root. I am now taking the third bottle and feel like a new woman, sleep well and have no pains whatever.

I strongly advise all sufferers to take the only real cure for kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was a God-send to me.

You may publish this letter if you wish so that it may be the means of bringing some poor sufferers back to health.

WORCESTER BATTERS GOT TO WOLFGANG ON PENNANT DAY

And Visitors Won 6 to 3—One Fall Inning Lost Game for the Locals

Yesterday was pennant day at Spaulding park and the emblem won by the Lowell team as champions of the N. E. league. Last season was raised prior to the game between Lowell and Worcester. The members of last year's team who won the flag had the honor of pulling it up the hole as the Lowell Cadet band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

The members of the team who were with the winners last season on the team at the present time with Young of Worcester, who was with us last season, are Maybourn, Boutles, Magee, Lavigne and Wolfgang. They assembled at the plate at the opening and as the band played marched to the flag pole in centre field where the banner was unfurled.

After the pennant had been raised and the players returned from centre field City Solicitor J. Joseph Hemmesy approached the plate addressing the assemblage in part as follows: "According to a time honored custom in the realm of baseball, this is pennant day in the New England league. It is a day set apart to accord to the victor of the league a pennant. It is with great pleasure that I in behalf of the lovers of the game in Lowell who are ever proud of their representatives in baseball, congratulate the club on its success. Baseball is a game of science and splendid activity of manhood. We hope that next year Lowell will again fly a pennant."

During the course of the game the band played national and popular airs.

Before going to the park a street parade was held. The latter was formed in front of the Hibernia building and there were nine autos in line. The procession was headed by the Cadet band. The owners of the team, Messrs. Roach and Kennedy, and the club physician, Dr. William M. Collins, were in the first machine. The members of the press in Mercer's large touring car were next in line. Managers Gray of Lowell and Burkett of Worcester and Commissioner James E. Donnelly followed. The members of last year's pennant winners were next and then came the other members of the team. The Worcester players were in the other machines.

After leaving the headquarters the parade proceeded up Merrimack street, to Moody, to Worthen and down Merrimack to Central to Gorham to Appleton to Central to Merrimack square and back to the headquarters.

The players then had lunch and repaired to the park for the second battle of the week with Burkett's Busters. The latter were out for revenge after the heart-breaking defeat of Monday and, despite the fact that it was pennant day, Jesse and his band had no sympathy for the locals.

Wolfgang was Manager Gray's selection for mound duty, while Hale took up the task for Worcester. The game was as fine an exhibition as one would care to watch, until the eighth inning, when Wolfgang weakened, and Worcester with three hits, two being for extra bases, and an error by Boutles got three runs and the game. No more runs were scored by either team, the final being Worcester 6, Lowell 3.

In the ninth inning Lowell was retired with three on. Two men were out, with two others on bases, when Hale hit Miller with a pitched ball, killing the sacks. Jesse, who was put off the diamond, sneaked into the grandstand, and at the point of Miller being hit, he yanked Hale and sent in his crack, Van Dyke. De Groff came to bat and Van slipped over three wide ones, and the game was over. The game in detail:

First Inning

Neither side scored in the first inning. Nye started out by fanning the breeze. Flaherty hit a line drive which Wolfgang pulled down and hung on to. Shorten struck out. Lavigne dropped the third strike, but recovered the ball in time to throw the runner out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Clemens flied to Wilson, Miller flied to Crum and De Groff was retired on strikes.

Score: Lowell 0, Worcester 0.

Second Inning

Aubrey hit to Wolfgang and was out at first. Crum hit to Miller and died at first and Wilson was third out on a fly to Clemens.

Lowell scored one run in the latter half of the inning. McGamwell hit to Nye and failed to reach first. Magee then smashed the ball into the right field corner for a home run. Boutles singled to right field and a little later started to steal second. Hale sent the ball to Haas and the latter threw it to Aubrey and Jake was nailed at second. Loneragan flied to Wilson.

Score: Lowell 1, Worcester 0.

Third Inning

Worcester scored two runs in the third. Haas got a two-bagger to right. Reynolds hit to Wolfgang, who threw to Boutles getting Haas at third. Nye hit to Miller and the latter fumbled and the runner was safe. Reynolds going to second on the throw. Flaherty knocked the leather into centre field for a three-bagger. Reynolds and Nye scoring. Shorten hit to Miller and died at first.

The home team went out in one, two, three order in the latter half. Lavigne struck out and Wolfgang hit to Wilson.

Score: Lowell 1, Worcester 3.

Fourth Inning

Miller flied to Crum and De Groff got a base on balls, the first free pass given during the game. McGamwell flied to Shorten and later De Groff went to second. Magee was third out on a fly to Haas.

Score: Lowell 1, Worcester 2.

Fifth Inning

Reynolds started off in the fifth inning by sending the ball to right field for a two-bagger. Hale hit to Wolfgang who threw to Boutles getting Reynolds at third base. Then went to second on a wild ball. Nye hit to Miller and was out at first. Hale going to third. Flaherty struck out.

Boutles flied to Flaherty, and Loneragan followed with a single to centre and then stole second. Lavigne drew a base on balls and Wolfgang flied to Flaherty. Clemens flied to Flaherty.

Score: Lowell 1, Worcester 2.

Sixth Inning

Shorten hit one too hot for Wolfgang to handle and reached first. He tried to steal second and Lavigne threw the ball to Loneragan and the latter tagged the runner. Jesse Burkett disputed the decision, and the umpire ordered Burkett off the grounds. Aubrey hit to Wolfgang and was out at first. Crum struck out.

Lowell tied the score in the sixth inning. Miller hit to Hale and was out at first. De Groff singled over second and went to second base on a bad throw. McGamwell singled, it being an infield hit. Magee hit to Aubrey, who threw to second getting McGamwell, but De Groff scored. Boutles flied to Crum.

Score: Lowell 2, Worcester 2.

Seventh Inning

Wilson flied to Miller and a minute later Haas sent the ball to the left garden for three bases. Reynolds singled and Haas scored. Hale flied to McGamwell. Nye singled to left field. Flaherty flied to Lavigne, the latter making a beautiful running catch over near the stands.

Loneragan walked and went to second on Lavigne's sacrifice. Wolfgang singled and Loneragan scored. Clemens hit to Aubrey, who threw Wolfgang out at second. Miller flied to Wilson.

Score: Lowell 3, Worcester 3.

Eighth Inning

Worcester scored three more in the eighth inning. Shorten hit to Boutles, who fumbled. Aubrey hit to Loneragan, who threw to Miller, getting Shorten at second. Crum singled to right. Wilson got a two-bagger to right and Aubrey scored. Haas followed with a two-bagger to left and Crum and Wilson scored. Reynolds hit to Wolfgang and the latter threw to Boutles and Boutles and Loneragan doubled Haas between the bases. Hale hit to Wolfgang and was out at first.

De Groff got a scratch single. McGamwell flied to Haas, Magee flied to Wilson and Boutles flied to Crum.

Score: Lowell 3, Worcester 6.

Ninth Inning

Nye hit to Wolfgang and was out at first. Flaherty sent the ball to Loneragan and was retired at first. Shorten drew a base on balls. Aubrey struck out.

Loneragan drew a base on balls. Lavigne flied to Crum. Wolfgang hit to Flaherty, who threw Loneragan at second. Clemens drew a base on balls. Miller got hit by a pitched ball and the bases were filled. Van Dyke went in to pitch for Worcester. De Groff struck out.

M'GAMWELL AND OWENS STRENGTHEN TEAM

Both Are Among Best in League in Respective Positions

The above are two of Lowell's most valuable men at the present time. McGamwell since coming to Lowell has given a better game than ever in his career and his fielding is of the best in the league. He takes everything that comes his way on the first station and his long reach and great jumping ability have saved the other infielders many errors. Where he has greatly improved is at the stick. During his short stay with us he has broken up several games with his timely bingles. One of his swats that will be remembered by all who saw it was the clout that he gave the pill in Monday's game. Two men were on the sacks and the score 8 to 5 against us, when Eddie picked out one of Young's homers and sent the ball to the right field for a homer, tying the score. Lowell then won out. His ability was realized when Manager Gray first got the local team, and the latter made several attempts to get him and finally succeeded in landing the best first sacker in the league this season, and the fans are certainly pleased with his work.

EDDIE M'GAMWELL,
Star 1st Baseman of the Lowell Team.

ANDY OWENS,
Lowell's New Pitcher, Who Looks Good to Fans.

Owens Has Won Both of His Games—"Mac" Hitting Well

Andy Owens, one of the latest acquisitions to the Lowell pitching staff, looks like the real cheese, and in getting this man, the local manager has made a ten strike. He has a great assortment of shots, good speed and a fine noddle. In his games with Lowell so far he has worked to excellent advantage and has a record of two games won and none lost. He was with the Boston Nationals, and if his fine work continues he will undoubtedly go back to the big ones.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The No. Chelmsford Cadets defeated the Washington A. C. Saturday June 22, at Lincoln park by a score of 11 to 3. The features of the game were the pitching of Ryan and batting of E. Alford and A. Alford. We would like a game for Saturday, June 23, from any team in Lowell under 12, the game to be played at North Chelmsford. Our line-up is as follows: Duffy, c; Ryan, p; Donovan, 1 b; Holland 2 b; Tansey, s; Pope, 3 b; E. Alford, l. c; A. Alford, r. f; Jalbert, c. f. Send challenges to Leo Pope, No. Chelmsford.

The Highlands defeated the Moles last Saturday afternoon at the Dixwells grounds by the score of 16 to 12 in a fast eleven inning game.

The Y. M. C. A. of Methuen would like to arrange a game of baseball with any 18 year old team in Lowell. Address Manager Charles Mahoney, 105 Railroad St., Methuen, Mass.

Three of Leading Crews in Poughkeepsie Rowing Classic and Two Captains

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26.—The intercollegiate rowing regatta on the Hudson this year, which will be held June 29, will decide the championship of America, as Cornell defeated Harvard and Stanford defeated everything on the Pacific coast. The members of all the crews are in great class shape, and hard fought struggles are looked forward to. Naturally all eyes are centred on Cornell and Columbia, where the boat of contention has been for the past few years. But all the crews have a chance to rival the best on the river, and it is expected that this spring, and there's Wisconsin, which Coach Courtney and his men recognize, as shown by the hard season by finishing fourth and giving Cornell a run for its money. In squads have had within the last two weeks. Syracuse has its followers, in view of the fine showing that the Salt City oarsmen made in their preliminary races this spring. And there's Wisconsin, who won't all calculations last season by finishing fourth and giving Cornell a run for its money. In

DIAMOND NOTES

One each.
Halestein, of the University of Vermont, communicated with Manager Gray of the Lowell team and said that he was ready to come to the Spaulding City. The local manager told him to come at once, and it is expected that the clever tosser will be with us in a few days.

Umpire Stafford gave a good exhibition of umpiring, despite the fact that Jesse said, "Look out there, Mr. Stafford, you may get into trouble. You're all one way." Umpire Stafford: "Get out, no more for you." Jesse got but not until he addressed the audience in the grand stand saying: "You better get a chain and tie him here all season." Later Burkett took a seat in the grandstand.

Haas, Worcester's first hit at a fast clip yesterday. Three hits out of four times up, and all for extra bases are pretty good for one afternoon's work.

Jimmy Magee's homer in the second inning was a good swat, and as he rounded the bases the band played "Everybody's Doing It." Jimmy was the only one to complete the circuit in yesterday's pastime, and he got a little check for calling for 73 packages of the Bull.

Loneragan played a good game and he was lively on the bases. Of the two bases stolen during the game, Loneragan got one. He also bumped his way to the first station twice.

J. Joseph made some hit with his eloquent address at the game yesterday, but the immaculate trousers certainly "got" the boys on the stands along third.

At Haverhill today. The latter team will return to Lowell tomorrow and on Friday Terry McGovern and his Lynn terrors will be with us in a double-header. First game at 2.

STEIN DEFEATED

GIBBONS GAVE HIM A SEVERE BEATING

NEW YORK, June 26.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul gave Joe Stein of this city an artistic trimming in a 10-round bout that went the limit at the St. Nicholas A. C. last night.

Gibbons floored Stein twice during the bout, but despite his endeavors he was unable to put the local boy out.

Gibbons used his left to Stein's face and made his right tell every time it landed.

Gibbons had the better of practically all of the 10 rounds. Stein proved a rugged opponent but was considerably battered, assimilating a lot of punishment. Gibbons weighed in at 140 pounds and Stein at 143.

OFFERS JOHNSON $30,000

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 26.—Hugh McLaughlin, the Australian promoter, has written Jack Johnson and offered him $30,000 for a bout to be fought in Australia within the next year.

It is supposed Johnson's prospective antagonist is Sam Langford, although the name of the colored fighter is not mentioned. McLaughlin offers to pay at once a forfeit of $10,000 as a guarantee of good faith. Johnson has not yet decided whether he will accept.

WOMAN WAS MURDERED BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Her Head Was Severed From Body by Some Blunt Instrument

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 26.—The nude body of a woman with the head severed and the arms crossed and tied together with rope, was found in the Blackstone river near Dames grove yesterday by Eugene Jacobs, who was going through the woods to his home. The head had been severed with some blunt instrument and after the arms and legs had been lashed together, a stone weighing about fifty pounds was tied to the end of the rope to keep the body from floating. Medical Examiner R. G. Reed and Asst. Medical Examiner Edward Myers were both agreed that the victim was murdered and mutilated by some one unfamiliar with surgery.

The body is that of a woman between 30 and 35 years of age, apparently a native of this country. There was not a mark that would lead to any positive identification. The police have begun a search, but have very little to work upon.

The body has been in the water for about two months, and during that period and for some time before there was no report at the police station that would tally anywhere near with the size of the woman found.

Dames grove, where the body was found, is about two miles from the center of the city. There are one or two houses in the vicinity, but the place where the body was found was at the foot of a steep embankment in the woods.

Jacobs was going through the bushes yesterday and happened to look into the river, when he saw the body floating. He immediately notified the police. Chief Boston and Patrolmen Patrick McSoley and James Brady went to the scene with Asst. Medical Examiner Dr. Edward Myers. The police procured a boat and with assistance of Jacobs succeeded in getting the body to the shore. The stone attached to the end of the rope and the bushes making this a hard task. There were no bruises upon the body and the only mutilation was about the neck, the head apparently having been severed by some blunt instrument.

ELEVEN ARRESTED

Indian Orchard, on the banks of the lower Merrimack river, which has always been a favorite resort for tramps and undesirable citizens, especially during the summertime, was the scene of a large gathering last night.

Eleven men well supplied with liquor went in the orchard in the vicinity of the old car barn at the end of First street and after having a jollification and having exhausted the supply of liquor, went to sleep on the ground.

Early this morning the police heard of the gathering and Sergt. Giroux, and Patrolmen Joseph Clark, Considine and Ingalls went to the place and arrested the men. Eight of them were drunk and the other three were arrested as being suspicious persons.

In court this morning one of the men was returned to the state farm, several received a month in jail, and others were fined.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOL

Pupils and Teachers Congratulated by Rev. John J. Shaw—Graduates Received Diplomas and Fine Program Was Presented

The closing exercises of St. Michael's school were held in the basement of St. Michael's church in Sixth street last night at 7:30 o'clock and the class motto, "The End Crowns the Work" was very appropriate, inasmuch as the class which graduated last night showed that the Dominican sisters who have charge of the school are most earnest, persevering, and painstaking in the instruction of the scholars.

There was a large attendance at the exercises, including pupils of the school, parents of the pupils, former graduates, friends, members of the parish and visiting sisters and priests.

An elevated platform had been constructed in the front of the altar and the temporary stage was decorated in a very artistic manner. The background was a bower of beauty, made up of bunting, flowers and greenery arranged in a very artistic manner. In the center of the rear of the stage was a handsome likeness of Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor of the church, over which were the national colors. There was an abundance of potted plants carefully arranged on the platform, while during different parts of the entertainment large floral arches and other artistic designs added to the beauty of the scene.

Promptly at 7:30 o'clock the first number on the program was given, it being a march, "American Conquest," by Gronwald, which was rendered in a pleasing manner by an orchestra.

The program was as follows: March, "American Conquest." Orchestra. Gronwald.

Salutatory: Helen Cecilia Boudreau. Greeting Song: Grammar Grades, Girls. Knowledge Is Power, "Discussion," Class of 1912.

Edward O'Connor. Farewell Song: Class of 1912. Awarding of Diplomas and Remarks: Rev. John J. Shaw, Pastor. Finale, T. M. A. March—Song. Jacobus Orchestra.

Pianist: Miss Ella Callahan. Sheehan's Orchestra—James A. Sheehan, director. The members of the class of 1912 are: John Damien Barrett, John Joseph Delaney, Henry James Kelly, Edward Leo O'Connor, Terrence Patrick Rourke, Francis Aloysius Sullivan, Helen Cecilia Boudreau, Sarah Patricia Delaney, Rose Ella Grouse, Catherine Frances Nugent, Mary Faustina Rourke, Sarah Louise Rooney, Mary Frances Salmon.

The program was creditable. "Queen Flora's Day Dream" was one of the best numbers on the program, and the 30 girls and one boy who participated in the presentation did their work in a delightful manner. Lillian Burns portrayed the part of "Queen Flora," while Catherine Nevins took the part of "Stella." After a short dialogue between "Stella" and "Queen Flora" the girls of the sixth and seventh grades appeared as lillies. The lillies were attired in white and each carried a lily. Next to appear on the stage were the girls of the fourth and fifth grades, who were the fairies. Half of the girls wore pink and the other half wore in blue. Then came little John Tooley, who was the bumblebee. He buzzed in and out of the line of lillies and fairies and sang a bumblebee song in an admirable manner. Next in order came the children of the second and third grades, who were daisies. The little tots were attired in crepe paper dresses of daisies and each wore a wreath of daisies and yellow ribbons in their hair. The entire chorus then rendered a vocal selection in a manner which brought forth considerable applause and at the conclusion the whole company of daisies, lillies and fairies presented a beautiful tableau.

Little Eleanor McFadden, who is about six years of age, made a hit with the audience when she appeared on the platform. She was neatly attired in a cream colored accordion plaited silk dress, and after making a neat bow sang "Papa Will Not Sell." The little girl is possessed of a sweet voice and at the conclusion of the song she received great applause.

Master Edward O'Connor, one of the brightest boys who ever graduated from the school, was the valedictorian, and he delivered his address in a manner which stamps him as a future orator of no mean ability. The valedictory was written by himself and was very interesting and well arranged, to say the least.

Rev. John J. Shaw, who presented the diplomas, congratulated the pupils and offered them good advice. He also complimented the reverend sisters of the Dominican order, who through their painstaking work had succeeded in turning out such a bright and intelligent class of pupils. He then referred to the good that the Catholic schools are doing throughout the country, stating that at the present time there are one and one-half millions of children attending the parochial schools in the United States at a saving of $40,000,000 annually to the different cities and towns.

During the course of the hearing counsel for the defense put the several officers who testified through a rigid cross-examination.

Patrolman Cornelius T. O'Keefe testified to having arrested the man in Garham street, near Bent's court on the night of Saturday, June 15. He said that the man was under the influence of liquor and was staggering through the street.

Patrolman John W. Swanwick, who assisted in the arrest, corroborated the testimony offered by the previous witness. Wagon Officer John Hickson said that the man was intoxicated.

The defendant testified that he had taken but one drink during the day and that he was perfectly sober when placed under arrest.

The court, however, found the man guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

Case Continued: Michael Slattery, charged with assault and battery on Joseph Lechanow, entered a plea of not guilty and at the request of his counsel the case was continued till Saturday morning.

Placed on Probation: John Downey, charged with failing to provide proper support for his children, was placed on probation for two months.

Drunken Offenders: John Trahor, Alphonse Doucette, Joseph F. Coughlin and Loretta Moran, charged with being drunk, were each sentenced to one month in jail. Frank Jones, John Monahan and George Dorsey were each ordered to pay a fine of $6.

William Cassidy was sent to the state farm and five first offenders were fined $2 each.

This morning's session of the police court would have been very brief but for the fact that the continued case of John Small, charged with drunkenness, was called for trial. This took up more than an hour's time and after the case had been presented the court found the defendant guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

William Cassidy was sent to the state farm and five first offenders were fined $2 each.

This morning's session of the police court would have been very brief but for the fact that the continued case of John Small, charged with drunkenness, was called for trial. This took up more than an hour's time and after the case had been presented the court found the defendant guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

During the course of the hearing counsel for the defense put the several officers who testified through a rigid cross-examination.

Patrolman Cornelius T. O'Keefe testified to having arrested the man in Garham street, near Bent's court on the night of Saturday, June 15. He said that the man was under the influence of liquor and was staggering through the street.

Patrolman John W. Swanwick, who assisted in the arrest, corroborated the testimony offered by the previous witness. Wagon Officer John Hickson said that the man was intoxicated.

The defendant testified that he had taken but one drink during the day and that he was perfectly sober when placed under arrest.

The court, however, found the man guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

Case Continued: Michael Slattery, charged with assault and battery on Joseph Lechanow, entered a plea of not guilty and at the request of his counsel the case was continued till Saturday morning.

Placed on Probation: John Downey, charged with failing to provide proper support for his children, was placed on probation for two months.

Drunken Offenders: John Trahor, Alphonse Doucette, Joseph F. Coughlin and Loretta Moran, charged with being drunk, were each sentenced to one month in jail. Frank Jones, John Monahan and George Dorsey were each ordered to pay a fine of $6.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

J. Frank Connors and Miss Leahy Married

St. John's Catholic church in North Chelmsford was this morning the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. J. Frank Connors, secretary for the Lowell Trust Co., and Miss Leahy A. Leahy, a popular young woman of North Chelmsford and a former stenographer at T. C. Lee's office, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony, which was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. Edmund T. Schofield, pastor, assisted by Rev. W. George Mullin of St. Peter's church, this city, was largely attended by relatives and friends of the young couple. Seated in the sanctuary were many clergymen from this city and elsewhere. As the bridal party entered the church, Leahy's wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Quigley and as the party was leaving she played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, while the altar presented a very pretty sight with its flowers and marigold lights. The bride wore a reception was later held where Charles E. McLaughlin, William Caskey, Frank B. McCarthy, Dr. Patrick J. McLaughlin, John Adams. During the mass there was appropriate singing by an augmented choir and a pretty "O Salutaris" was eloquently rendered by Mr. William Goshin of this city. Miss Gertrude Quigley presided at the organ and also sang "Vent Creator".

The bride was charmingly attired in white satin with duchess lace trimmings and wore a bridal veil trimmed with lilies of the valley. She carried Killarney roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Alice G. Leahy, who was becomingly dressed in pink tulle with Venice trimmings. She wore a large picture hat and carried sweet peas. The bridesmaid was accompanied to the altar by her cousin, Dr. Richard McLaughlin.

At the close of the mass the bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Mr. and Mrs. Connors, who were accompanied by a large number of friends. The happy couple, as they entered the house, Miss Leahy's friends of this city played a pretty wedding march on the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Connors received in the parlor which was artistically decorated with palms and roses. Later a dainty wedding dinner was served in the spacious dining room. Present at the dinner and reception were: Mayor James E. O'Donnell of this city, Mr. J. Edward Sullivan, secretary to the mayor of Haverhill, a cousin of the bride, and several friends from Lowell and surrounding cities.

At noon the happy couple boarded an automobile and while their friends were giving them a royal send off, they speeded away on the Boston road, going to the Hub, from where they will sail to the Bermudas. They will be at home to their friends in Church street, North Chelmsford after three weeks.

The bridegroom's gifts to the ushers were beautiful pearl studs, while the best man received a very pretty set of gold cuff links set with diamonds. The bridesmaid was presented a very costly pendant and chain set with diamonds.

SOMETHING NEW FOR HOUSE-KEEPERS. BE SURE TO TRY IT

Carbonol is a coal tar product and if you add a dash of it to water use in cleaning you will find that it cleans immediately becomes more effective in dissolving dirt and grease. As Carbonol will not hurt anything, it is a good idea to add it to the water anyway, whether you have a difficult cleaning job or not.

For Obstinate Dirt
Many a housewife never knows how dirty her floors have been until she has tried Carbonol on them and sees how much cleaner they can be made. There are many kinds of dirt which soap and water alone will not dissolve. Anything of a greasy or oily nature will resist water. When Carbonol is added to the water, the grease is immediately dissolved and the work of cleaning is accordingly very much simplified.

For Rust
Carbonol water is splendid for removing rust from iron. It is in fact the only thing which will remove rust without great labor. It will remove verdigris from metal and stains from marble, wood and cloth.

For the Sink
Wash out the kitchen sink with Carbonol water and you will find it much easier to clean on account of the dissolving of the grease. If the drain pipe from the sink is choked with accumulated grease, pour a little pure Carbonol down the pipe and the grease will be dissolved, thus saving a plumber's bill.

For Housework
Carbonol water will clean harness which is very greasy and which cannot be made to look bright and nice to handle except with the use of such a strong solvent. It will also act as a disinfectant. It will suppress odors by stopping the decomposition which is the cause. It is also a powerful germicide and will prevent contagion from disease and kill germs anywhere.

It can be used to clean wounds, to prevent blood poisoning, and it will be equally effective for killing germs in a household. Use one or two bottles at the drug store. We will be glad to send a sample of Carbonol to you on request. Write to the Carbonol Company, 237 Franklin street, Boston, Mass.

AMERICA SHOULD SWEEP THINGS IN OLYMPIC MEET

KIVIA

There seems to be little question as to which nation will win the Olympic meet at Stockholm this year. At present it does not appear that the combined nations of the world could score many more than enough points to beat America in the most classic of all athletic games. Judging by the performances of the athletes in the clubs and colleges during the past spring, there is every reason to believe that the United States will make a clean sweep in almost every event in which it is represented.

The records established in the intercollegiate meet in Philadelphia recently and the high class performances which were exhibited in all the events shook off whatever doubt remained as to the fact that America had the best chance in years to make a wonderful showing in the Olympiad, and that notwithstanding the fact that it has won every set of games that has been held since the revival in 1896, but the general high standard set in every event that took place a week later in the Harvard stadium leaves no room to think anything other than that this country will win the great meet by rolling up a far greater total of points than it has ever achieved previously.

The team that has been sent across the Atlantic to carry away the honors of another Olympia numbers in its ranks several holders of world's records, and almost every man who is given a place has held high marks at some time in his career. Abel Kiviat now holds the Olympic record, although not officially, in the 1500 meter run, while John Paul Jones, who will pair off with him in that event, has the world's mark for the mile, which in English measure corresponds to that event. Melvin Sheppard has held the Olympic records officially in both the 800 meter and 1500 meter runs. Reid-path of Syracuse is a faster man in the quarter than any other man in the world today, while both he and Mercer of Penn are better in the 200 meter run than any known amateur unless it be the German, Rau.

In the field events there will be several champions. Ralph Rose, world's record holder in the shot put, will have for his mates Russell Beatty, intercollegiate champion, and Pat McDonald, the New York star. Jim Dunan has thrown the discs farther than any other man. George Horne has the world's mark in the high jump to his credit, while the only two men living today who have cleared more than 13 feet in the pole vault will wear the red, white and blue shield on their shirt fronts.

Until recently it has been thought America would be weak in the sprints, but the tryouts have proved that the United States is strong in the sprints. The tryouts at Cambridge brought out a marvel in Howard Drew, the Springfield high school boy. The latter beat Ralph Craig twice on the same day in masterly style. Many experts predict he will win the 100 meter event with ease. Ira Courtney of the Seattle A. C. is another speed demon who is expected to add some points to the American team.

Judging the American team from the recent performances of the men, it looks as if Uncle Sam's boys will win every race that is run and every field event.

At least there does not appear to be a single man in competition in any of the foreign events who can take the measure of the mainstays of the American team. There is a possibility that some of the men will go stale and the calculations prove extremely faulty, but the chances of such a contingency appear decidedly remote when it is considered that the men are in the hands of the best trainers the world has known.

Followers of athletics in America will probably be surprised to learn that Sweden, which has absolute control of the fifth Olympiad, helps the cause of sport generally through the medium of a lottery, the proceeds of which are used for the National Association of the Swedish Gymnastic and Athletic clubs $500, which is used for administrative purposes.

It is this association which has helped to place athletics in Sweden on a very firm basis and has united the special associations representing various branches of sport which are without expensive arrangements and apparatus. By this means it has been possible to introduce uniform rules, promote co-operation between the associations and by means of one common direction of the whole support, promote and direct the athletic life of the country.

The national association is the highest authority in the active Swedish athletic movement and consists of representatives, first, from sections each of which sends two members and, second, from the district associations, which send one delegate for every full 500 members up to the limit total of 12 representatives.

The athletic clubs are affiliated with the special associations, and also with the respective district associations. Each club pays a very low fee to the association to which it is affiliated. In order for an athletic club to become a member of a special association it is necessary for the club to show that it really practices the form of athletics it professes to exercise.

The crown prince of Sweden has been the president of the national association and its board ever since the formation of this body.

There are thus special associations for athletics, canoeing, cycling, fencing, football, golf, gymnastics, lawn tennis, rowing, skate sailing, skating and swimming, each of which has the independent care of its special branch of sport and represents its branch in all dealings abroad, but co-operates with the board of the national association.

The district associations, 21 in number, are for the most part divided into branches whose limits agree with those of the Swedish provinces. With each district association are affiliated all the athletic clubs existing within its boundaries. It is the task of these district associations, controlled by the special associations, to be the directing power for every branch of sport in their respective districts, to see that championship meetings, etc., are arranged, and also to decide questions regarding athletes that may arise within the respective territories.

The administration of the district associations is in the hands of a committee elected at a general meeting of the clubs affiliated with the district association, or in the case of the larger district associations, is undertaken by special committees for the various branches of sport.

In order to encourage the exercise of athletics in general, and more especially the keeping up of these pursuits after attaining manhood, the national association has issued an "athletic badge," which may be awarded to every sportsman who is a Swedish subject, belongs to some club affiliated with the national association and who has met the conditions mentioned below. The badge has three distinct grades and, in agreement with these, is awarded in bronze, silver and gold.

The bronze badge may be given to every athlete who, during the same calendar year, passes one test in each group of exercises. The sportsman who during every one of four years (whether in succession or not) passes one test in each group is entitled to the silver badge, while the one who satisfies the same conditions during each of eight years (whether successive or not) is entitled to a gold badge.

That athlete, however, who during the course of the year, when he reaches his 22d birthday, or at a later date, passes one test in every group shall also be awarded the gold badge, irrespective of whether he has previously obtained the other badges or not.

The tests which must be passed in order to gain the athletic badge are divided into the following five groups: (1) Swimming 200 meters (swimming test) or gymnastics; (2) high jump, minimum 135 centimeters, or long jump, minimum 475 centimeters; (3) running 100 meters, maximum 18 seconds or running 40 meters, maximum time 1 minute 5 seconds, or running 1500 meters, maximum time 5 minutes 15 seconds; (4) fencing or throwing the discus, minimum 40 meters, or throwing the javelin, minimum 50 meters, or putting the weight, miniimum 16 meters; (5) running 10,000 meters, maximum time 59 minutes, or cycling (on road) 20,000 meters, maximum time 50 minutes, or taking part in the final of the league football match or in a match for the Swedish football championship.

FOURTH PARTY PROSPECTS

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, who believes that he, rather than Roosevelt, represents the real progressive sentiment of the republican party, made a trip from here to Baltimore yesterday to hold an important conference with William Jennings Bryan.

Although the senator refused yesterday afternoon to say what results the conference had brought forth, it is said here on all sides that the mission had to do with the forming of a fourth party. The political prophets here are saying that if La Follette can persuade Bryan to join hands with him and lead the radical democrats to co-operate with whatever radical republicans he may command he will be in the field as a candidate, or even as a supporter of Bryan.

"Yes, it is true that I saw Mr. Bryan in Baltimore today," the Wisconsin senator said last evening at his home. "I arrived in Baltimore at 2 o'clock this afternoon. I saw Mr. Bryan making a speech before the democratic national convention. I saw him on one or two other occasions."

"Did you have any talk with him?" he was asked.

"I will neither confirm nor deny anything," he replied. "I am not ready to make any statement of any sort at this time. When I am, you will get it."

The meeting yesterday had been arranged carefully, for it was known in Baltimore yesterday that the conference would be held today. It is understood that La Follette sought the interview and that Bryan answered he would be glad to receive a hint.

The only obstacle in the way of the alleged plan of La Follette is that Bryan has so far refrained from announcing his intention to bolt the democratic convention. On the other hand it has been predicted that if the democratic nomination a man not liked by Bryan, the Nebraska would bolt and might support Roosevelt.

Consequently there is a great eagerness given to the story that La Follette is anxious to sever such support to his cause and to take it away from Roosevelt.

JAMES T. DOYLE

SURRENDERED HIS FIRST CLASS LICENSE AT THE CRYSTAL

At a special meeting of the license commission this morning the first class liquor license held by James T. Doyle at what is known as The Crystal in Worthen street was surrendered and cancelled, and a similar license at the same place was issued to Clarence E. and Mary L. Cunningham, under the firm name of Cunningham & Co.

NAME WAS OMITTED

A visitor from out of town who attended the graduation at the Butler grammar school yesterday spoke of the general excellence of the exercises, and the master, Cornelius E. Callahan, has called our attention to the fact that the name of Francis Charles Fletcher was inadvertently omitted from the published list of graduates. Besides the speakers whose names appeared on the program, the graduates were addressed by Rev. Fr. Lee of Worcester, Rev. N. W. Matthews of this city and Arthur K. Whitcomb, superintendent of schools.

SUIT FOR $2,000,444 BROUGHT BY DUPLESSIS CO. Haverhill Shoe Machine Concern Alleges Damages by United Shoe Machinery Co.

BOSTON, June 25.—A suit for $2,000,444 was filed in the United States district court yesterday by the Duplessis Independent Shoe Machinery company against the United Shoe Machinery company, under the Sherman Antitrust act, alleging injury to its business by reason of the monopoly and combination of the defendant. Plaintiff has a factory at Haverhill.

It alleges it has been exceedingly difficult to overcome the fear in the minds of shoe manufacturers, that if they purchased any machines from the plaintiff, sudden and swift retribution would be visited on their heads by the defendant in the exercise of its so-called rights under its leases. It alleges the purpose of the defendant's combination was to kill all competition in shoe machinery business, to the end that it might control absolutely the shoe machinery business in the country, which it practically has accomplished, and is now in undisputed control of the business to the exclusion of all independent competitors.

This control, the plaintiff alleges, was not due to business organization, better product and fair methods in the prosecution of its business, but to the fact that it has persistently and arbitrarily enforced onerous and oppressive provisions by all means within power in the leases, which were planned and drawn up, not to protect its patents but solely and absolutely as a means of perfecting its control over the shoe machinery business to the exclusion of competitors.

Plaintiff further alleges the company filed baseless suits against customers for whom the plaintiff installed machines, and also against the plaintiff, alleging infringement of its patents.

Charles F. Chase, counsel for the United Shoe Machinery company, filed a brief yesterday in the suit by the federal government for dissolution of the company, on the question of whether testimony to be taken before Gen. Charles K. Darling as examiner should be private of public, with open doors or closed doors, as the testimony is taken day by day.

Mr. Chase argued that the hearing is not a trial and the public ought not to know what is testified to before the court, which will not know it until the same is filed in court. Publication prematurely from day to day of the testimony so taken, counsel said, would seriously injure the defendant, as testimony taken may be irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent and no immediate opportunity appear to reply to the same.

WOMAN WAS RESCUED

No Cause Is Known For Mrs. Velervine's Act—Doctors Say That She Will Recover

A woman who gave her name as Mrs. Joseph Velervine, residing at 130 Cheever street, this afternoon jumped from the window of her home into the Pawtucket canal. Two young boys who were in swimming succeeded in bringing the almost lifeless body to the banks of the canal, where they were helped by other people who had congregated. The woman was rushed to the hospital where it was stated later that she would recover.

She was placed in the carriage of Dr. J. H. Russell and removed in haste to the Lowell hospital, where the physicians declared she would recover.

Mrs. Velervine is married and is the mother of several children. She gave a

MARINE DISASTER
OFF NANTUCKET

Wreckage Was Sighted by the British Bark Stranger Which Arrived Today

BOSTON, June 26.—That a serious marine disaster took place south of Nantucket lightship four or five days ago is the belief of Captain Blawie, white of the British bark Stranger, who arrived today that he sighted much wreckage, including scores of wooden packing cases on June 22d.

The Stranger was on a voyage from Turkey Island to this port when in latitude 40 north and longitude 70 west she began passing through great quantities of wreckage. It was difficult to distinguish any particular bit of wreckage. Some packing cases were broken open and seemed to contain paper hat boxes. Stencilled names

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION--NO
BUSINESS DONE TODAY

Senator-elect Ollie James of Kentucky was named as permanent chairman of the democratic national committee at a meeting of the committee on permanent organization held today. Urey Wilson, secretary of the national committee, was defeated for secretary of the convention by E. E. Britton of Raleigh, N. C. William J. Bryan was offered the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions and declined to accept the position. Massachusetts delegates today launched the Gov. Foss boom for president. Many delegates are talking Senator Kern for president. The convention assembled shortly after 12 o'clock today and decided, that after hearing several speakers, adjournment would be taken to 8 o'clock tonight when the committee on credentials will report.

CONVENTION HALL, Baltimore, June 26.—Delegates filtered into the big hall today. With but a scattered attendance on the floor at 10.30 a. m. a haze of heat seemed to fill the big building and give promise to a sweltering day's proceedings.

Floor and galleries decided on negligence and coats were stripped off just as soon as the delegates struck the close atmosphere of the hall. Floods of palm leaf fans fluttered throughout the building. Galleries and floor filled up very slowly but the sergeant-at-arms and the police had trouble keeping the aisles clear. Warned by the speaker of yesterday, Sergeant-at-arms Martin marshalled a squad of policemen and posted them in the galleries with orders to eject anyone creating a disturbance.

Some ten minutes before noon the Right Rev. John G. Murray of Baltimore, chaplain of the day, took his place on the platform. The delegates' seats were gradually filling up, however, and the floor was in confusion. Chairman Parker had not yet appeared but National Chairman Mack was on the platform.

The heat grew more intense as the big hall filled up. Chairman Parker peered his desk with the gavel and the sergeant at arms aided by the police set out to clear the aisles. Slowly the confusion subsided and the convention got under way.

When the prayer was concluded Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana reported that the credentials committee would not be ready to report until 3 p. m. He said he would not make a motion to adjourn until that time, however, as he was sure the delegates would like "a little oratory." Later it was decided to adjourn to 8 o'clock.

Former Governor Folk of Missouri was introduced as the first orator. "The nominee of this convention will be the next president of the United States," said Mr. Folk. He eulogized Mr. Bryan at length. The delegates grew restless in the course of Folk's speech and Chairman Parker was forced to admonish them to be quiet. Folk's speech was very brief and Senator Rayner of Maryland next was called upon.

He also predicted success for the democratic nominee and discussed the division in the republican party and declared that the motto of the party faction would be "We will react and retrograde."

The motto of the Roosevelt party, he quoted as "Thou shalt not steal." "Our motto in this campaign will be, 'We shall progress,'" shouted Senator Rayner and the crowd cheered.

When Rayner concluded Chairman Parker asked for more speakers. "Tom" Heflin of Alabama went up from the floor. But Mr. Parker introduced Congressman Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the house judiciary committee.

The delegates seemed to enjoy what one of them termed "a spell of spell-binding."

After he spoke for several minutes in denunciation of republican principles and present policy, Mr. Clayton turned to democratic prospects.

"I do not know upon whom the nomination of this convention will fall," he said.

"Underwood," shouted an Alabama delegate.

"Clark," shouted a man from Missouri.

"Wilson," came in answering chorus from New Jersey.

"Harmon," called the Ohioans.

In a moment the entire convention hall was swept by the shouts and songs of the adherents of the different candidates. The band joined in the demonstration.

Chairman Parker made little effort to quiet the enthusiasts.

Mr. Clayton stood smiling at the speaker's desk.

And the melody of southern airs from the bands brought out increasing cheers.

Some of the delegates attempted to uphold the state standards but the policemen by quick work prevented this. The aisles became clogged by delegates and it seemed that many of the spectators had invaded the delegates section.

One man opened a fur umbrella and started a parade but was headed off. By this time Chairman Parker and the sergeant-at-arms were making frantic but vain efforts to restore quiet.

"New Jersey, please sit down," called a deputy sergeant-at-arms.

"Missouri, please give the speaker a chance," called another.

Mr. Clayton at last made himself heard above the din.

He declared that whoever the candidate was he would be the next president of the United States of Massachusetts.

State Chairman Folger of Massachusetts was the next introduced and spoke briefly on general issues, making a plea for legislation for the betterment of labor and concluded with an endorsement of Clark.

A round of cheers greeted Senator Gore of Oklahoma, who was next introduced. The blind statesman was unable to proceed with his speech for some time because of the uproar.

"Let us have peace," said Mr. Gore in the course of his talk. "Let us have peace at any price, at any sacrifice, save that of honor. Let us here put every democrat under bonds to keep the peace."

A burst of applause greeted this sentiment.

"Nothing can save the republican party from self slaughter except democratic suicide," declared Mr. Gore. "We cannot live half progressive and half reactionary. Theodore Roosevelt endeavored to breathe the breath of life of moderate progress into the petrified remains of the republican party. He failed. The mummy would not move."

Senator Gore closed with a plea for harmony which called out much enthusiasm.

"Fellow democrats," he said, "let the candidate of this convention be your candidate."

John Temple Graves of Georgia and New York, came next on the long list of orators.

Former Governor Campbell of Ohio denounced the republican party in no uncertain terms. He was the last speaker.

An effort was made from the floor to upset the arrangement for tomorrow's session and adjourn the convention until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The attempt failed and at 2.15 the convention adjourned until 8 p. m.

NEW YORK MEN
TO VOTE FOR GAYNOR ON THE FIRST BALLOT

BALTIMORE, June 26.—It was definitely stated today prior to the beginning of the second session of the democratic national convention that William Jennings Bryan, defeated in the nomination yesterday, has determined to precipitate another fight on the floor at the earliest opportunity.

Mr. Bryan, it is said, has taken the ground that precedent should be upheld and a nomination made for the presidency before the platform is written and adopted. Some of the Nebraskan's followers are hopeful the nominating fight may go to a fourth or fifth ballot and believe that in that situation many delegates will go to him.

Dark horse candidates were more general today. This was due to the fact that the New York delegation has determined to vote for Mayor Gaynor on the first ballot. The evident purpose of this is to get a test among the candidates and something of a true line on the situation.

Others interpret it as meaning that Mayor Gaynor may be boomed for the vice presidency.

The Woodrow Wilson people, who stood by Mr. Bryan almost to a man in his fight for the temporary chairmanship are extending his support in return when it comes to nominating and apparently base their hopes of success upon some such action.

callers today quoted him as saying that it was useless to write a progressive platform if the conservative element should control the nomination. Mr. Bryan has been urged to write the platform but is said to be loath to have anything to do with it until he is sure who the candidate will be.

Some of Mr. Bryan's friends say the request to him to frame the party declarations is an attempt to commit him in advance to the subsequent action of the committee on a nominee who might be willing to accept the Bryan platform.

Whether the former candidate holds this view of the matter was not disclosed. It was certain today as he left the hotel for the meeting of the committee on resolutions that he was full of fight and had determined to wage his war against the Ryans and the Belmonts to the end of the gathering.

Both the Bryan and anti-Bryan factions in the convention were interested today in the "third party" gossip which is prevalent. The advent of Francis J. Heney of California, who fought for Mr. Roosevelt in the republican national convention, and Charles Crane of Chicago, who helped to conduct the early La Follette campaign and their reported interview with Mr. Bryan gave an impetus to the discussion. It was reported today that Senator La Follette already was in Baltimore or on his way here to get in touch with the possibilities of the democratic situation. No one had been able to locate Mr. La Follette during the forenoon.

Mr. Heney said he had come to Baltimore to see the democratic steamroller at work, that he had become so interested in the "foot, too," at the Chicago convention he could not sleep without it.

All of the committees were in session today. It was reported that Senator-elect James of Kentucky had met with much opposition as a candidate for permanent chairman. Some of the more radical conservatives said they feared the Bryan influence behind Mr. James. Many other names were mentioned as a compromise between the factions.

Senator Silvey of Indiana and Senator Lea of Tennessee were among those mentioned.

With the nominating sessions expected to be held tomorrow, presidential gossip filled the air today. It seems to be admitted by all that Chairman Clark will go into the convention with a distinct advantage over all the other candidates.

Mr. Bryan's friends refuse to consider him out of the running and say his defeat for the temporary chairmanship yesterday was in no sense a test of what his strength would be as the presidential nominee.

The Bryan followers are hopeful the nominating fight may go to a fourth or fifth ballot and believe that in that situation many delegates will go to him.

Motions for New Trials in Ten Cases Were Heard by Judge Stevens Today

Judge Stevens of the superior court sat this morning for the last time during this term. There was no case to go to trial, but the court heard motions for new trials in about ten cases, among them being that of Lamarre vs. The Guarantee Construction Co., in which a large verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff; the case of Stearns vs. Long, in which a verdict was rendered for the defense, and the case against the Tremont Building Trustees of Boston, who were ordered to pay $15,000 for the death and conscious suffering of a Boston resident. The judge, however, withheld his decision until a later date, and court adjourned at 1 o'clock.

This evening the juryman, judge and court officials will attend a banquet, which will be held at D. L. Page's dining room. The meal will be served at 7 o'clock and will be followed by speeches and an entertainment program.

COUPLE WED IN AUTO JUST ACROSS STATE LINE

Pastor Stands in Front Seat of Machine Operated by Butcher in White Frock

HAYVERHILL, June 26.—A marriage in an automobile just over the state line in New Hampshire after a hair-raising ride from this city and then back again at still greater speed is behind the announcement yesterday made by Rev. Dr. Manford D. Wolfe, pastor of the South Christian church, that he had married William Tasher of Plimsfield, N. H., and Miss Iva Fletcher of Farmington, N. H.

Late Monday afternoon the couple arrived in this city and, armed with a marriage license obtained in New Hampshire, the groom and bride, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Roberts, Jr., who met them on arrival, drove in a hack to the residence of the minister in Jackson street.

Mr. Wolfe said the marriage license was useless in this state, and City Clerk W. W. Roberts was appealed to in the hope of obtaining a special permit, but this was impossible. The couple, who had planned on remaining here only long enough to be married, having purchased their tickets for a bridal trip to New York and Philadelphia, became alarmed.

Dr. Wolfe then remembered that he possessed a permit to marry in New Hampshire and this solved the dilemma. Mr. Roberts telephoned Walter N. Atwood, who runs a provision store on Mt. Washington, a short distance from Jackson street, and what is more important he owned an automobile. Mr. Atwood answered "Yes" over the wire and dressed in his white butcher's frock, he fastened with his auto to the home of the minister. The latter, with the couple and their attendants, jumped into the car and Mr. Atwood made record time in hastening to the state line at Plimsfield, N. H.

The boundary stone was no sooner passed than the auto was stopped and, standing in the front seat, Dr. Wolfe performed the marriage ceremony, with the couple and their attendants standing in the tonneau.

As soon as the ceremony was over Mr. Atwood turned his machine about and he broke all kinds of speed laws in heading for the railroad station, landing the couple there just in time to catch the train for Boston to connect with the train for New York.

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL TO BORROW $700,000

It Was Voted to Allow the Mayor to Expend $1000 for Fourth of July Celebration

All members of the municipal council, with the exception of Ald. Barrett who is attending the convention at Baltimore, were sharp on time at last night's meeting at which it was voted to borrow $700,000 in anticipation of taxes and to meet obligations coming due July 1. The council had met during the afternoon but the proposition to borrow was not touched upon at that time and the order was not drawn up until late in the afternoon. The order reads that $700,000 shall be paid in one year and $100,000 on or before December 31, 1912. Ald. Brown thought the $100,000 ought to be paid by December 1 instead of 31. The mayor explained that the order read "on or before" December 31 and he thought it might well be left to the discretion of the commissioner of finance. He said it might embarrass the treasury to pay it before that time and if it could be paid before that time the finance commissioner would so notify the council.

The observance of July Fourth was taken up at the afternoon meeting and went over to last night. Mayor O'Donnell said he was in favor of a minor celebration, band concerts and entertainments for the children and he thought that about $500 would be enough. Ald. Brown, however, moved that the mayor be empowered to spend not more than $1000 for the day and it was so voted.

On motion of Mayor O'Donnell it was voted to ask the city solicitor to submit an ordinance controlling parades in the city streets. The meaning of the ordinance will be that in order to parade it will be necessary to get permission from the proper authorities.

A hearing on petition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company for the removal of a pole in Church street was heard. Messrs. Chaffin and Moran appeared as respondents.

A hearing on petition of the same company for the relocation of a pole in East Merrimack street was held. No respondents.

Mr. Cummings said that men who wished telephones had complained that their business has been held up because of the discussion by the council of a proposed ordinance to ask a rental fee for the erection of poles. He cited the petition of a man living in Howard street, who had asked for power to run his business and who said his business had been interrupted on account of the delay. Mr. Cummings asked that some action be taken.

Mayor O'Donnell said he would have to vote against the petition. He said he did not believe in heavy powered overhead wires and had voted consistently against the granting of pole locations for that purpose. He said the wires ought to be underground. The order was put, and was passed, granting the Lowell Electric Light Corporation the right to erect a pole in Howard street.

Action on other petitions was deferred until the meeting of next Monday, at which time it is believed Mr. Barrett will be present. Mayor O'Donnell discussed the observance of July Fourth. He said that he had stated that there remained in the treasury the sum of $254 that was not disturbed when the annual appropriations were made and in addition to that the water department had paid $2000, representing part of a debt owed the treasury by that department. Notwithstanding this he would suggest that $500 only be spent for the mild observance of the nation's annual day. The payment of $1000 to Mr. Jex, the financial expert, is a matter that is obligatory, and with this in view and also the possibility of a future appropriation for Lucy Larcom park, he could not see the wisdom of spending more than $500. The mayor said that the cost of the expert's assistant's report would clean up the commissioner's fund of $1500.

Mr. Cummings thought that $500 was about the right amount of money to spend. Mr. Brown wanted to know if the matter of salaries had been considered. Mr. O'Donnell said it had not been.

Alderman Brown moved that the mayor be authorized to spend not more than $1000 and it was so voted.

The mayor was authorized to spend $250 for the placing of Lucy Larcom park in proper condition.

The temporary loan question was brought up by the mayor. "It is a well known fact," he said, "that on July 1st the matter of renewing the $100,000 temporary loan comes up. The government of this year has had no greater revenue than have governments in the past, and we are not in a position to reduce that amount. The commissioner of finance has prepared an order for the borrowing of that amount, $100,000 for a term of one year, the remaining note for $100,000 to be paid on or before December 31, 1912."

The order was then read, it states that the notes shall be paid from the taxes, and that the notes shall not be valid unless authenticated by the First National bank of Boston.

In order to precipitate discussion the mayor moved that the order be adopted. Mr. Brown would prefer to have the $100,000 note made payable on or before the first day of December, but he was willing to leave it to the commissioner of finance as suggested by the mayor and the order was adopted. Thomas G. Robbins, counsel for Chief E. S. Hosmer during the Green trial, asked that the city pay the counsel fees. The commissioner of finance has refused to pass upon the bill, believing that it should be considered by the council. Alderman Brown believed the bill should be paid out of the fire department appropriation.

Mayor O'Donnell said that there should be some ordinance framed governing the matter of parades in the public streets. He felt that no body of men should be allowed to parade unless official authority were given. He moved that the city solicitor be requested to draw up such an ordinance and submit it for approval, and it was so voted.

The mayor asked that the meeting of the committee on claims be deferred until some night next week. Adjournment at 9:07 to Monday at 10 a. m.

Dr. O'Connor's Address
Dr. James B. O'Connor, of the school
board, in presenting the diplomas ad-

ressed the graduates, speaking as follows:

Dear Graduates: It is with feelings of the keenest delight that I assist at your graduation exercises today and I take great pride in being permitted to present to you your diplomas.

Let me congratulate you, dear graduates, let me congratulate you heartily upon your large class, upon the excellence of today's program, and more especially upon the successful completion of your long course of study.

Your dear parents and your teachers, too, deserve to be congratulated because it is due to their continual efforts, their self-sacrificing devotion and careful instruction as much as to your own application, that you are now graduates of a public school that ranks as high as any in the land. The diploma that each one of you is about to receive is nothing less than a seal of public approval that is stamped upon your work of the past several years. It is, no doubt, the first work of public honor or testimonial of merit that you have received and while you should always prize it as such and with pride should hang it in your home to be admired, still, as often as you gaze upon it, besides filling you with a just pride, it should also inspire you to new, better and nobler efforts in the future. That diploma should recall to your minds the lessons you have learned in these halls, so sacred to your childhood, and should fill you with the strong determination to apply those lessons better than ever before and mark you, I do not mean the lessons of geography, grammar or arithmetic, so much as the great lessons of respect for authority, obedience, self-sacrifice, industry and devotion to duty, all of which have been instilled into your young minds during these years. These, and not mere book learning, are the things that count most in the great battle of life. You have come to realize how much they have cost you to realize how much they will count still more in the future.

If you live up to those principles conscientiously, no matter what may be your walk in life, you must in the end succeed. Go forth today, then, with that strong determination and let your aim be high. Consider no honorable position in this country too high for your young ambition. Remember the old English saying: "He who aims to hit the mark will shoot higher than he who aims only at a bush." Even if you can not at present continue your studies in the high school, do not give up hope. Many a successful professional man completed his studies only after long years of toil in the mills or workshops. Besides, there are still many golden opportunities in the city of Lowell for young men and young women of the right spirit. There are a hundred different courses of study in our various evening schools, any one of which you may choose and which will insure your future success. Be determined to get all the schooling you can and make every sacrifice to do so. Have confidence, therefore, be true to the lesson of your youth; be faithful to your duty and I assure you the future will only bring honor to yourselves, to your parents, your teachers and to your alma mater, the Highland school.

In presenting your diplomas let me also extend to you my sincere good wishes for the future.

Kidney Trouble Over- come by the Great Treatment

I have been a sufferer for years with kidney and bladder trouble and took almost everything a drug store contained without obtaining any benefit. I suffered so that I became utterly discouraged, as I could not sleep, was always dizzy and had a headache all the time. I saw one of your advertisements and as a last resort, decided to try your Swamp-Root. I am now taking the third bottle and feel like a new woman, sleep well and have no pains whatever.

I strongly advise all sufferers to take the only real cure for kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was a God-send to me.

You may publish this letter if you wish so that it may be the means of bringing some poor sufferers back to health.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Of the Immaculate Conception School Held
Last Night—Large Audience Enjoyed
Excellent Program Offered

Last night marked the thirty-first annual commencement exercises of the Immaculate Conception parochial school, and on this occasion a delightful entertainment was provided by the pupils under the able direction of the Grey Nuns of the Cross, who are in charge of the school.

The attendance was very large and, despite the intense heat, the parents and friends of the graduates spent a very pleasant evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants and streamers of the national colors. The address to the graduates was delivered by the pastor of the parish, Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, O. M. I., who also delivered school diplomas to 37 pupils, and diocesan diplomas to 30 young people, while five others were presented Palmer method certificates.

Long before the time set for the exercises, 8 o'clock, the school hall was filled to the doors. The first number on the program was a chorus entitled "The Song of Iron," which was delightfully rendered by the first and second primary boys. As an encore they gave "My Shadow."

STOCK MARKET

WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE THIS

AFTERNOON

List Moved to Best Prices in the Last

Hour—Strength Very Pronounced in

the Harbinger-Hill Shares

NEW YORK, June 26.—Railroad shares were the feature of a dull, but strong opening in today's stock market. Reading, Amalgamated, Steel, C. and other issues made fractional gains.

The gains of the opening were generally extended in the first hour afternoon, a point in the more active session. Wire stock specialties rose from 1 to 2 points.

Industrial and financial developments

outweighed all other considerations in today's stock market. The long expected price advances in finished steel and iron were announced by several of the leading independents with the likelihood of similar action by the steel corporation. Steel and allied shares were resolutely strong, but less so than some of the standard railway shares, notably the coals. Numerous specialties, including American Tobacco, which rose to a new high record, were prominent in the early dealings.

After some hesitation the entire list made further improvement in the afternoon with unusual activity in the electrical issues and Louisville &

Nashville, all at marked advances.

The market closed strong. On greater business the list moved to best prices in the last hour with strength

most pronounced in Steel, Norfolk &

Western and the Harbinger-Hill shares.

ILLINOIS FIGHT
TOOK UP TIME OF CREDENTIALS
COMMITTEE

BALTIMORE, June 26.—The credentials committee this morning determined to ask the convention to adjourn until 5 o'clock tonight, owing to the inability of the committee to complete work on the contest cases. Arguments in the Illinois case were still going on.
A bitter fight was made by the Illinois contestants on the rule of Roger Sullivan as national committeeman from that state. The Hearst-Harrison faction claimed to have carried a majority of the precincts in Chicago and to have controlled the Cook county convention. They charged the Sullivan men had booted that convention out when the case of the Hearst-Harrison delegation was presented to the credentials committee of the Peoria convention the Sullivan faction was in control and refused them seats and the contesting forces found it useless to go into the convention next day and renew their fight.

Rev. Fr. Tighe in presenting the diplomas referred to the 31st annual commencement exercises, and said that during all the years of the school's history its great success was due to the fine support of the parishioners and the faithful duties of the teachers. He also referred to the graduates of the school, a number of whom are now priests, while others have entered other religious orders. He gave the 1912 graduates good advice on their future career and encouraged them to follow the footsteps of their predecessors and to keep up the good record of the school. He called upon them to remember to put in practice the lessons taught them by the devoted Sisters, and in closing he paid a tribute to the graduating class, and expressed his regret at their leaving school and said he hoped that success would crown all their future efforts.

Present at the exercises were four graduates of the school: Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, O. M. I., Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O. M. I., Rev. Fr. Hamersley, O. M. I., and Rev. Fr. McQuaid, O. M. I.,
as well as Rev. Fr. Fox, O. M. I., and Rev. Fr. Finnegan, O. M. I., the latter of the Ottawa university.

Those who were presented Palmer method certificates for penmanship were: Catherine Sullivan, Mary Payton,
Mary Cassidy, Gertrude McCabe, Rita
Freese.

The young girls taking part in the reading, "A Literary Coronation," were:
Catherine Mulligan, Margaret Green,
Helen Bracewell, Margaret Hamersley,
Grace Burns and Helen Pollard.

Last Sunday the parents of the pupils were given a fine opportunity to inspect the work done by their children during the year, as an exhibition was held in the school hall. During the last term at school and showed with visitors, who could not help congratulating the Sisters on the excellent showing of their pupils. The visitors were shown different classes of work, such as essays on various subjects, compositions in history and other subjects, as well as a fine exhibit of penmanship. Every one was pleased with the doings of the children during their last term at school and showed their appreciation of the exhibition.

LADIES' DAY OBSERVED
AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Fine Concert by Waltham
Watch Co. Band

Ladies' day at the Country club will be long remembered by those who were present. Weather conditions were perfect and the large crowds seemed to be enjoying themselves. A prettier, more brilliant or more attractive scene than the grounds and club house presented cannot be imagined. The lawn is decorated with quantities of mountain laurel and bay trees. The dining-rooms, halls and library are handsomely decorated with cut flowers in vases.

At about eleven this morning the crowds began to arrive, many coming in automobiles, others by the railroad and electric. A special dinner was served from 12 until 2. This afternoon many ladies played whist, tables having been placed on the veranda, while the Waltham Watch Co. band, directed by John M. Fletcher, played popular selections. The club could not have used better choice in selecting a band
as they played unusually well.

The

WORCESTER BATTERS GOT TO WOLFGANG ON PENNANT DAY

And Visitors Won 6 to 3—One a Inning Lost Game for the Locals

Yesterday was pennant day at Spaulding park and the emblem won by the Lowell team as champions of the N. E. league last season was raised prior to the game between Lowell and Worcester. The members of last year's team who won the flag had the honor of pulling it up the pole as the Lowell Cadet band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

The members of the team who were with the winners last season on the team at the present time with Yount, Worcester, who was with us last season, are Mayhew, Boutles, Magee, Lavigne and Wolfgang. They assembled at the plate at the opening and as the band played marched to the flag pole in center field where the banner was unfurled.

After the pennant had been raised and the players returned from center field City Solicitor J. Joseph Hennessy, approaching the plate addressing the assemblage spoke in part as follows: "According to a time honored custom in the realm of baseball, this is pennant day in the New England league. It is a day set apart to accord to the victor of the league a pennant. It is with great pleasure that I in behalf of the lovers of the game in Lowell who are ever proud of their representatives in baseball, congratulate the club on its success. Baseball is a precise science and splendid activity of mankind. We hope that next year Lowell will again fly a pennant."

During the course of the game the band played national and popular airs. Before going to the park a street parade was held. The latter was formed in front of the Hildreth building and there were nine autos in line. The procession was headed by the Cadet band. The owners of the team, Messrs. Roach and Kennedy, and the club physician, Dr. William M. Collins, were in the first machine. The members of the press in Mercier's large touring car were next in line. Mayor Gray of Lowell and Brockton of Worcester and Commissioner James E. Connelly followed. The members of last year's pennant winners were next and then came the other members of the team. The Worcester players were in the other machines.

After leaving the headquarters the parade proceeded up Merrimack street, to Moody, to Worthen and down Merrimack to Central to Gorham to Appleton to Central to Merrimack square and back to the headquarters.

The players then had lunch and repaired to the park for the second battle of the week with Burket's Busters. The latter were out for revenge after the heart-breaking defeat of Monday and, despite the fact that it was pennant day, Jesse and his band had no sympathy for the locals.

Wolfgang was Manager Gray's selection for mound duty, while Hale took up the task for Worcester. The game was as fine an exhibition as one would care to watch, until the eighth inning, when Wolfgang weakened, and Worcester with three hits, two being for extra bases, and an error by Boutles got three runs and the game. No more runs were scored by either team, the final being Worcester 6, Lowell 3.

In the ninth inning Lowell was retired with three on. Two men were out, with two others on bases, when Hale hit Miller with a pitched ball, filling the sacks. Jesse, who was put off the diamond, sneaked into the grandstand, and at the point of Miller being hit, he cracked Hale and sent him crashing. Van Dyke came to bat, and Van slipped over three wide ones, and the game was over. The game in detail:

WOMAN WAS MURDERED BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Her Head Was Severed From Body by Some Blunt Instrument

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 26.—The nude body of a woman with the head severed and the arms crossed and tied behind the back and the knees tied together with rope, was found in the Blackstone river near Dames grove yesterday by Eugene Jacobs, who was going through the woods to his home. The head had been severed with some blunt instrument and after the arms and legs had been lashed together, a stone weighing about fifty pounds was tied to the end of the rope to keep the body from floating. Medical Examiner R. G. Reed and Asst. Medical Examiner Edward Myers were both agreed that the victim was murdered and mutilated by some one unfamiliar with surgery.

The body is that of a woman between 30 and 35 years of age, apparently a native of this country. There was not a mark that would lead to any positive identification. The police have begun a search, but have very little to work upon.

The body has been in the water for about two months, and during that period and for some time before there was no report at the police station that would tally anywhere near with the size of the woman found.

Dames grove, where the body was found, is about two miles from the center of the city. There are one or two houses in the vicinity, but the place where the body was found was at the foot of a steep embankment in the woods.

Jacobs was going through the bushes yesterday and happened to look into the river, when he saw the body floating. He immediately notified the police, and Chief Boston and Patrolmen Patrick McSoley and James Brady went to the scene with Asst. Medical Examiner Dr. Edward Myers. The police procured a boat and with assistance of Jacobs succeeded in getting the body to the shore. The stone attached to the end of the rope and the bushes making this a hard task. There were no bruises upon the body and the only mutilation was about the neck, the head apparently having been severed by some blunt instrument.

ELEVEN ARRESTED

Indian Orchard, on the banks of the lower Merrimack river, which has always been a favorite resort for tramp and undesirable citizens, especially during the summer time, was the scene of a large gathering last night.

Eleven men well supplied with liquor went to the orchard in the vicinity of the old car barn at the end of First street and after having a jollification and having exhausted the supply of liquor, went to sleep on the ground.

Early this morning the police heard of the gathering and Sergt. Giroux and Patrolmen Joseph Clark, Considine and Ingalls went to the place and arrested the men. Eight of them were drunk and the other three were arrested as being suspicious persons.

In court this morning one of the men was returned to the state farm, several received a month in jail, and others were fined.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOL

Pupils and Teachers Congratulated by Rev. John J. Shaw—Graduates Received Diplomas and Fine Program Was Presented

The closing exercises of St. Michael's school were held in the basement of St. Michael's church in Sixth street last night at 7:30 o'clock and the closing motto, "The End Crowns the Work" was very appropriate, inasmuch as the class which graduated last night showed that the Dominican sisters who have charge of the school, are most earnest, persevering, and painstaking in the instruction of the scholars.

There was a large attendance at the exercises, including pupils of the school, parents of the pupils, former graduates, friends, members of the parish and visiting sisters and priests.

An elevated platform had been constructed in the front of the altar and the temporary stage was decorated in a very artistic manner. The background was a bower of beauty, made up of building, flowers and greenery arranged in a very artistic manner. In the center of the rear of the stage was a handsome likeness of Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor of the church, over which were the national colors. There was an abundance of potted plants carefully arranged on the platform, while during different parts of the entertainment large floral arches and other artistic designs added to the beauty of the scene.

Promptly at 7:30 o'clock the first number on the program was given, it being a march, "American Conquest," by Gruenwald, which was rendered in a pleasing manner by an orchestra.

The program was as follows: March, "American Conquest," Gruenwald

The program was creditable. "Queen Flora's Day Dream" was one of the best numbers on the program, and the 50 girls and one boy who participated in the presentation did their work in a delightful manner. Lillian Burns portrayed the part of "Queen Flora," while Catherine Nevins took the part of "Stella." After a short dialogue between "Stella" and "Queen Flora" the girls of the sixth and seventh grades appeared as lillies. The lillies were attired in white and each carried a lily. Next to appear on the stage were the girls of the fourth and fifth grades, who were the fairies. Half of the girls wore pink and the other half wore in blue. Then came little John Toohy, who was the bumblebee. He buzzed in and out of the line of lillies and fairies and sang a bumblebee song in an admirable manner. Next in order came the children of the second and third grades, who were daisies. The little tots were attired in crepe paper dresses of daisies and each wore a wreath of daisies and yellow ribbons in their hair. The entire chorus then rendered a vocal selection in a manner which brought forth considerable applause and at the conclusion the whole company of daisies, lillies and fairies presented a beautiful tableau.

Little Eleanor McPadden, who is about six years of age, made a hit with the audience when she appeared on the platform. She was neatly attired in a cream colored accordion plaited silk dress, and after making a neat bow sang "Papa Will Not Sell." The little girl is possessed of a sweet voice and at the conclusion of the song she received great applause.

Master Edward O'Connor, one of the brightest boys who ever graduated from the school, was the valedictorian, and he delivered his address in a manner which stamps him as a future orator of no mean ability. The valedictory was written by himself and was very interesting and well arranged, to say the least.

Rev. John J. Shaw, who presented the diplomas, congratulated the pupils and offered them good advice. He also complimented the reverend sisters of the Dominican order, who through their painstaking work had succeeded in turning out such a bright and intelligent class of pupils. He then referred to the good that the Catholic schools are doing throughout the country, stating that at the present time there are one and one-half millions of children attending the parochial schools in the United States at a saving of $40,000,000 annually to the different cities and towns.

DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT

The skillful combination of wholesome Fruit Juices with the finest aromatic Jamaica Ginger and Pure Spring Water makes Chelmsford Ginger Ale distinctly different from ordinary high grade Ginger Ales. It has that fruity ginger flavor, that satisfying thirst quenching quality that good Ginger Ale should have. It costs more to make than any other brand in New England and it tastes better because it is better.

In convenient dust proof cases of one doz. 7 glass bottles and in one glass bottles at places where good Ginger Ale is served.

FEW OFFENDERS IN COURT

Only Minor Cases Were Heard Today

This morning's session of the police court would have been very brief but for the fact that the continued case of John Small, charged with drunkenness, was called for trial. This took up more than an hour's time and after the case had been presented the court found the defendant guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

During the course of the hearing counsel for the defense put the several officers who testified through a rigid cross-examination.

Patrolman Cornelius T. O'Keefe testified to having arrested the man in Gorham street, near Rent's court on the night of Saturday, June 15. He said that the man was under the influence of liquor and was staggering through the street.

Patrolman John W. Swanwick, who assisted in the arrest, corroborated the testimony offered by the previous witness. Wagon Officer John Hickson said that the man was intoxicated.

The defendant testified that he had taken but one drink during the day and that he was perfectly sober when placed under arrest.

The court, however, found the man guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $2.

Case Continued
Michael Slattery, charged with assault and battery on Joseph Lachance entered a plea of not guilty and at the request of his counsel the case was continued till Saturday morning.

Placed on Probation
John Downey, charged with failing to provide proper support for his children, was placed on probation for two months.

Drunken Offenders
John Trainor, Alphonse Doncello, Joseph F. Coughlin and Loretta Moran, charged with being drunk, were each sentenced to one month in jail. Frank Jones, John Monahan and George Dorsey were each ordered to pay a fine of $2.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

J. Frank Connors and Miss Leahey Married

St. John's Catholic church in North Chelmsford was this morning the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. J. Frank Connors, attorney for the Lowell Trust Co., and Miss Salice A. Leahey, a popular young woman of North Chelmsford and a former stenographer at T. C. Lee's office, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony, which was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. Edmund Schofield, pastor, assisted by Rev. W. George Mullin of St. Peter's church, this city, was largely attended by relatives and friends of the young couple. Seated in the sanctuary were many clergymen from this city and elsewhere. As the bride party entered the church, Lehigh's wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Quigley and as the party was leaving she played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, while the altar presented a very pretty sight with its flowers and incense-lit lights. The brides at the church and home of the bride where a reception was later held were: Charles E. Delaney, William Galloway, Frank P. McGilly, Dr. Patrick J. Bagley, John Adams, Darling, the mass there was appropriately singing by an augmented choir and a pretty "O Salutaris" was charmingly rendered by Mr. William Galloway of this city. Miss Gertrude Quigley presided at the organ and also sang "Veni Creator".

The bride was charmingly attired in white satin with daisies lace trimmings and wore a bridal veil trimmed with lilies of the valley. She carried Killarney roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Alice G. Lashley, who was becomingly dressed in pink messaline satin with Venice trimmings. She wore a large picture hat and carried sweet peas. The bridegroom was accompanied to the altar by his cousin, Dr. Richard McCuskey.

At the close of the mass the bride party repaired to the home of the bride in Church street, North Chelmsford, where a large number of friends greeted the happy couple. As they entered the house Miss Cora Powers of this city played a pretty wedding march on the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Connors received in the parlor which was artistically decorated with palms and roses. Later a dainty wedding dinner was served in the spacious dining room. Present at the dinner and reception were: Mayor James E. O'Donnell of this city, Mr. J. Edward Sullivan, secretary to the mayor of Boston, Mr. a cousin of the bride, and several friends from Lowell and surrounding cities.

At noon the happy couple departed in an automobile and while their friends were giving them a royal send off, they speeded away on the Boston road, going to the club, from where they will sail to the Bermudas. They will be at home to their friends in Church street, North Chelmsford after three weeks.

The bridegroom's gifts to the ushers were beautiful pearl stick pins, while the best man received a very pretty set of gold cuff links set with diamonds. The bridesmaid was presented a very costly pendant and chain set with diamonds.

SOMETHING NEW FOR HOUSE-KEEPERS. BE SURE TO TRY IT

Carbonol is a coal tar product and if you add a dash of it to water used in cleaning, you will find that the water immediately becomes more effective in dissolving dirt and grease. As Carbonol will not hurt anything, it is a good idea to add it to the water anyway, whether you have a difficult cleaning job or not.

For Obstinate Dirt
Many a housewife never knows how dirty corners have been and how much cleaner they can be made. There are many kinds of dirt which soap and water cannot get off. Carbonol will resist water because water and oil won't mix. When Carbonol is added to the water, the grease is immediately dissolved and the work of cleaning is amazingly very much simplified.

For Rust
Carbonol water is splendid for removing rust from iron. It is, in fact, the only thing which will remove rust without great labor. It will remove veridigris from metal and stains from marble, wood and cloth.

For the Sink
Wash out the kitchen sink with Carbonol water and you will find it much easier to clean on account of the dissolving of the grease. If the drain pipe from the sink is choked with accumulated grease, pour a little pure Carbonol down the pipe and the grease will be dissolved, thus saving a plumber's bill.

For Burnes
Carbonol water will clean harness which is very greasy and which cannot be made to look bright and nice to handle except by the use of such a grease solvent. Carbonol is also a deodorant. It will suppress odors by stopping the decomposition of the grease. It is also a powerful germicide and will prevent contagion from disease and kill germs anywhere.

It is also a cleanser to clean wounds, to prevent blood poisoning, and it will be equally effective for killing germs in a house.

THE LOWELL "COPS" WON BY A SCORE OF 13 TO 12

Metropolitan Park Police Team Made Strong Finish in Today's Game

The Lowell police baseball team played the Metropolitan Park police team at Spalding park today, and the locals won by the score of 13 to 12. Strangers to relate, when the two teams met here in the early part of the season Lowell won by the same score. Lowell got the jump and had the lead all the way, though several times it looked as if the visitors were going to pull out on top.

The game was one of the best in police series and many brilliant plays were pulled off. "Big Jack" Sullivan started to work for Lowell, and for five innings he held the visitors hitless. They could not seem to solve the benefactors of the big lad, but when they did get him, they did some damage. While the visitors got two runs in the second, they came as the result of errors, but in the sixth session the cops from the beach got eight hits and, these with an error by Lynch, gave them eight runs. In the seventh inning McCarthy went in for Lowell and held the visitors to two hits and as many runs.

In the first inning Lowell got to Truesdale, who by the way on his last visit here fanned 17 Lowell men, and pulled up an even half dozen runs. Kelly singled and stole second and third and came home on an error by Sheehan who dropped the throw to get him. Lynch singled and stole and scored when Kenney hit one that Riley dropped. "Ref Trust" Drevett fanned the batters. Manager Donovan doubled to left and Kenney trotted home. Sullivan advanced the boss to third on a sacrifice. Clark singled and Donovan scored and Clark came home when Connors singled to Riley. The latter made a poor throw and "Jerry's brother" came all the way. Mike Winn ended the agony by fanning.

In the fifth Lowell got seven that came something like this: Kenney singled, Drevett singled and Kenney went to third. Donovan hit to Mason, who made a mess of things, and Kenney tallied and Drevett took third. Donovan stole second and Sullivan singled, scoring Drevett. Donovan came home on a passed ball. Clark hit to Sheehan, who stopped to look the ball over and all were safe. Connors was there with the sacrifice fly and Sully crossed the pan amid the cheers of the fans, who were tickled to death to see the custodian of the square stretch his "pins." Winn went out, Murphy to Mason, Kelly got a scratch hit. Lynch singled and Kelly went to third. Dan then paroled second. Kenney for the second time in the inning singled and Clark and Kelly counted. That was all for Drevett closed the inning on a grounder to Murphy. That was all the talking Lowell did.

Well the other fellows got two in the second like this: Jack fanned. Mason, the first man hit by the manager dropped the third hit and to get Jack's goat all the more he threw high to first and the runner went to second. He took third when Lynch lost Jack's throw to get him napping. Riley was hit by one of Sully's "outs" and after limping down to first he stole second. Scheidel hit one that Lynch lost and Mason and Riley trotted home on two gift runs. Dineen got on through the courtesy of Second Baseman Drevett and stole second but there was no more scoring in the inning as Sheehan and McEneaney were easy outs.

Though a few spectacular plays were pulled in the meantime there was no more fun until the sixth when the visitors accumulated the double quartet of runs. McEneaney started off with a single, the first hit for his team. Truesdale got a triple to right and Mac came home. Hills were then made by Murphy, Scheidel, Dineen and Sheehan and when McEneaney came up for the second time in the inning and got on on an error and Pitcher Truesdale got his second three-bagger intermingled with a fine home run by Mason, eight runs were scored. That was enough for the big fellow on the mound for Lowell and McCarthy went in to work. In the seventh the Metropolitan team got one on an error by Kelly and a hit by Scheidel, and in the eighth they got one more on hit by Sheehan and an error by Drevett. In the ninth both teams went out in order and the Lowell fans were a happy bunch. The fine playing of Biggs behind the bat for the visitors and the fast work of Murphy and Mason, who executed two double plays, were features of the game.

The score by innings:

Metropolitan ... 0 0 2 0 0 3 1 1 0-12

Two base hits—Donovan. Three base hits—Truesdale 2. Home run—Mason. Sacrifice hits—Connors. Double plays—Murphy and Mason 2. Stolen bases—Kelly 3, Lynch 2, Drevett, Donovan, Connors, Scheidel, Dineen, Truesdale 2, Riley, Sheehan. Bases on balls—By Sullivan, Truesdale. Struck out—By Sullivan 7 in 6 innings; Truesdale 4, McCarthy 1. Hits—Off Sullivan 3 in 6 innings, off McCarthy 2 in 3 innings. Wild pitch—Sullivan, Truesdale. Hit by pitched ball—Riley. Passed balls—Biggs. First base on errors—Metropolitan 4, Lowell 4. Left on bases—Lowell 4, Metropolitan 7. Umpires—Shea and Harding. Time—2h. 10m. Attendance—240.

THE BALLOT FOR PRESIDENT TO BE TAKEN TOMORROW BY DEMO- CRATIC CONVENTION

BALTIMORE, June 26.—Balloting for president will begin tomorrow in the democratic national convention according to present indications.

Immediately after the report of the credentials committee and the adoption of the permanent roll today the convention will choose its permanent officers. The identity of the permanent chairman may remain unknown to the last minute. In all probability a progressive candidate will be chosen, the conservatives having shown a willingness to make this concession since their victory over Bryan yesterday.

Scenes such as those which marked the opening of the convention yesterday, when disorder in the galleries forced a recess, seriously delayed business and strained the temper of the delegates who already are talking of getting home. Better order prevailed last night because the police were there to keep the aisles clear and suppress the noisy spectators. The assistant sergeants-at-arms had demonstrated that they could not maintain quiet even among themselves.

The second day of a national convention rarely furnishes many thrills. It corresponds to the second act of a four act play. The plot is slow in unfolding with no hint at the climax.

Resolutions Committee

An interesting feature of the day should be the report of the resolutions committee. Mr. Bryan is a member of the committee. It is not unreasonable to presume that he will construct a portion of the platform which meets that it will be one on which the conservatives can stand. And the conservatives in the convention will accept a progressive platform as they are practically ready to accept a progressive candidate rather than permit the democracy to furnish any recruits for Col. Roosevelt's third party.

Beaten on his first bid for support in behalf of the progressive movement, Mr. Bryan still is a dominant factor in this convention. By reason of that defeat he appears to be eliminated as a presidential candidate but he has sufficient following to throw the nomination in event of a close race between two candidates with all others eliminated. His friends declare that he will be the nominee if there is no choice on the first few ballots.

The credentials committee has one important contest to hear, that affecting the Sullivan and Harrison-Hearst factions in Illinois. The national committee placed the names of the Sullivan delegates on the temporary roll, but the other faction threatens to take the fight to the floor of the convention. Thirty-one delegations are at stake, including eight at large. The fight really is between the Wilson and Clark forces and resulted over the interpretation of the Illinois primary law.

Other contests to be decided involve the entire delegation from Rhode Island, and nine district delegates from Missouri, seven district delegates from Texas, six delegates from Alabama, two from the District of Columbia and four from Pennsylvania. The committee on permanent organization will try again to agree on a man for permanent chairman, the preliminary meeting last night having failed. Senator-elect James of Kentucky, Theodore Bell of California, Senator Kern of Indiana, Senator Culberson of Texas and Gov. Burke of North Dakota have been mentioned but none of them seems to be entirely acceptable to both the conservatives and the progressives. There was some talk last night that the committee would recommend that the temporary officers be made permanent but the leaders all seemed to be agreed that Judge Parker would not be the chairman.

When the resolutions committee meets one of the first men to present himself for a hearing probably will be Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who is anxious to have inserted in the platform several planks regarded as important to the cause of labor. It is said that the main fight in the committee will be whether the language of the Denver platform in regard to free raw material shall be followed. Mr. Bryan strongly favors this plank. Should lengthy discussion in the committee delay reports the convention would be forced to spend the day marking time. In this event nominations probably would not be reached until Friday.

At the headquarters of the various presidential candidates no talk of compromise is heard. Optimism prevails everywhere and each candidate is referred to by his adherents as "our next president." As the constitution of the United States makes no provision for seven presidents at one time, some of them must be mistaken. The Clark forces have been unusually confident since Mr. Bryan's defeat yesterday and are freely predicting the nomination of the speaker on the first ballot.

There are 2000 dog owners in the city and about half of them have paid their dog licenses. This much was gleaned this forenoon from the "dog" books in the city clerk's office and unless all dog taxes are paid within a week the warrants will be turned over to the police and they will be instructed to shoot every canine that isn't supplied with a legal excuse for living. There may be some sentiment connected with the keeping of dogs, but sentiment has to take a back seat when the taxes are due. The purpose of this item, however, is not so much to spare the dog, for it is generally conceded that upon departing this life the dog goes to the happy hunting ground, but to spare the owner the humiliation of having his or her dog shot dead before his or her eyes. If you want to keep Fido in the family a little longer, just escort him to the city clerk's office and tell the clerk or one of the assistants all you know about him—the dog, we mean. If you have tired of poor Fido, just hang the door in his face and tell him to go along about his business. He will know just exactly what you mean, for every dog, or most every dog, knows that this is a cruel "wo-oid." He will probably go to a policeman looking for sympathy and get bullets instead.

Rev. Thomas J. Gasson, S. J., who is to address the high school graduates this evening at Keith's theatre arrived in this city at noon and was received by Dr. James B. O'Connor of the school board, whose guest he will be while in town. As Rev. Fr. Gasson was anxious to visit some of the mills he was escorted to the works of the Esiglow Mill, Co., the Massachusetts Mohair Push mill and some others. He expressed his admiration of what he had seen in the mills and stated that wonderful progress had been made in the textile industry during the past ten years.

THE SAGAMORE CAMPERS

Held Enjoyable Dancing
Party at Lakeview

The Sagamore Campers held a very enjoyable dancing party at Lakeview last evening. The affair was the annual mid-summer party of the organization and, like its predecessors, was a grand success in every particular. The Lakeview hall was the scene of the festivities and it was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The music was furnished by Kittredge's orchestra, which was a feature of the affair. During the evening a grand display of fireworks was given on a raft erected on the water in front of the pavilion. The display was given by the Bay State Street Railway company, and with the double attraction of the dance and the fireworks all who went to the popular park last evening had a great time.

Some of the local patrolmen are hoping that an order will be issued that during the summer months straw hats shall be worn by the members of the department.

The members of the Lowell pennant winners raising the emblem at Spalding park prior to yesterday's game. Yount of Worcester, and Maybom, Wolfgang, Lavigne, Bouttes and Magee, of the champs were the ones to pull the string and the band was "directed" by De Groff.

ROOSEVELT SUPPORTERS CONFER WITH BRYAN

Heney and Crane Discuss With Him the Formation of a Third Party

BALTIMORE, June 26.—Francis J. Heney of California, one of Col. Theodore Roosevelt's fighting lieutenants in the republican national convention, and Charles H. Crane of Chicago, who helped to finance the Roosevelt campaign for the republican nomination, were in consultation here last night with William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska for three-quarters of an hour.

Heney and Crane reached Mr. Bryan's apartments by a private elevator and were gone again before their visit became generally known. No one could be found who would discuss the incident last night.

FOURTH PARTY PROSPECTS

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, who believes that he, rather than Roosevelt, represents the real progressive sentiment of the republican party, made a trip from here to Baltimore yesterday to hold an important conference with William Jennings Bryan.

Although the senator refused yesterday afternoon to say what results the conference had brought forth, it is said here on all sides that the mission had to do with the forming of a fourth party. The political prophets here are saying that if La Follette can persuade Bryan to join hands with him and lead the radical democrats to co-operate with whatever radical republicans he may command he will be in the field as a candidate, or even as a supporter of Bryan.

"Yes, it is true that I saw Mr. Bryan in Baltimore today," the Wisconsin senator said last evening at his home. "I arrived in Baltimore at 2 o'clock this afternoon. I saw Mr. Bryan making a speech before the democratic national convention. I saw him on one or two other occasions."

"Did you have any talk with him?" he was asked.

"I will neither confirm nor deny anything," he replied. "I am not ready to make any statement of any sort at this time. When I am, you will get it."

The meeting yesterday had been pre-arranged carefully, for it was known in Baltimore yesterday that the conference would be held today. It is understood that Bryan answered he would be glad to receive him.

The only obstacle in the way of the alleged plan of La Follette is that Bryan has so far refrained from announcing his intention to bolt the democratic convention. On the other hand it has been predicted that if the democratic nominee is a man not liked by Bryan, the Nebraskan would bolt and might support Roosevelt. Consequently there is a great credence given to the story that La Follette is anxious to swerve such support to his cause and to take it away from Roosevelt.

At a special meeting of the license commission this morning the first class liquor license held by James T. Cunningham, under the firm name of Cunningham & Co.

A visitor from out of town who attended the graduation at the Butler grammar school yesterday spoke of the general excellence of the exercises, and the master, Cornelius F. Callahan, has called our attention to the fact that the name of Francis Charles Fletcher was inadvertently omitted from the published list of graduates. Besides the speakers whose names appeared on the program, the graduates were addressed by Rev. Fr. Lee of Worcester, Rev. N. W. Matthews of this city and Arthur K. Whitcomb, superintendent of schools.

SUIT FOR $2,000,444 BROUGHT BY DUPLESSIS CO.

Haverhill Shoe Machine Concern Alleges Damages by United Shoe Machinery Co.

BOSTON, June 26.—A suit for $2,000,444 was filed in the United States district court yesterday by the Duplessis Independent Shoe Machinery company against the United Shoe Machinery company, under the Sherman Antitrust act, alleging injury to its business by reason of the monopoly and combination of the defendant.

Plaintiff has a factory at Haverhill.

It alleges it has been exceedingly difficult to overcome the fear in the minds of shoe manufacturers, that if they purchased any machines from the plaintiff, sudden and swift retribution would be visited on their heads by the defendant in the exercise of its so-called rights under its leases. It alleges the purpose of the defendant's combination was to kill all competition in shoe machinery business, to the end that it might control absolutely the shoe machinery business in the country, which, practically, has accomplished, and is now in undisputed control of the business to the exclusion of all independent competitors.

This control, the plaintiff alleges, was not due to business organization, better product and fairer methods in the prosecution of its business, but to the fact that it has persistently and arbitrarily enforced onerous and oppressive provisions by all means within power in the leases, which were planned and drawn up, not to protect its patents but solely and absolutely as a means of perfecting its control over the shoe machinery business to the exclusion of competitors.

Plaintiff further alleges the company filed baseless suits against customers for whom the plaintiff installed machines, and also against the plaintiff, alleging infringement of its patents.

Charles F. Choate, counsel for the United Shoe Machinery company, filed a brief yesterday in the suit by the federal government for dissolution of the company, on the question of whether testimony to be taken before Gen. Charles K. Darling as examiner should be private of public, with open doors or closed doors, as the testimony is taken day by day.

Mr. Choate argues that the hearing is not a trial and the public ought not to know what is testified to before the court, which will not know it until the same is filed in court. Publication prematurely from day to day of the testimony so taken, counsel said, would seriously injure the defendant, as testimony taken may be irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent and no immediate opportunity appear to reply to the same.

REV. MR. KENNGOTT'S BOOK

We notice that a proposition was made at the meeting of the school board Monday night to have Rev. Mr. Kenngott's book, "The Record of a City," introduced in the schools. The request, it was said, came from the grammar masters; but regardless of whence it came, the book is not one that should be put in the hands of school children or even of teachers as a book of reference.

We make this broad statement because the author in his book has pursued the policy for which he has been noted for years of belittling and even maligning the city of Lowell. That aim seems to pervade his entire book, and he has apparently searched history very carefully for statements derogatory to our city.

It will be remembered that on his return from a tour of old world cities and a visit to the Holy Land, Mr. Kenngott was reported to have said that in all his travels he had not seen a city so bad (morally we presume) as Lowell. In his book he depicts the worst conditions he could find throughout the city, presenting pictures of dilapidated buildings and of water closets in the Greek district and an alleged Greek kitchen not quite so respectable as the ordinary city dump. Is it fair to allow such standards to be set before the school children of Lowell as a basis on which to form an opinion of the Greek people of this city? No city and no nationality should be represented by the worst that is in it; yet apparently Mr. Kenngott thinks it is all right to show up the worst in our city and leave the reader to judge of the whole from the examples given. There is not a city in the land that has not some unsanitary hovels; but why bring these forward as representative of the whole or of the prevailing conditions in certain districts? Is it a fair method of presenting to the reader, as it were, a picture of our city?

We want to instill into the minds of our children a love of their native city and their home; we want to show them the best, not the worst, that our city contains; and above all we want to guard against poisoning their minds by holding up to their gaze only the filthy and the wicked. What a wholesome lesson it would be for children and how creditable to Lowell forsooth to read in Mr. Kenngott's book that our hotels are or were houses of assignation, a charge that by the way has never been brought against the hotels! What a delectable mental poison Mr. Kenngott has prepared for our children in the statement that certain elements of our population waste their energies in reproduction, meaning that they have too many children.

If we wished to inculcate class hatred in the schools, Mr. Kenngott's work would be a first class book to put in the hands of our school children. The author singles out certain nationalities for special criticism and attack, and if the school children were to form their opinions from this book, we do not see how they could ever have any respect for the Greeks, the French or the Irish, the elements of our population most severely criticised. The author poses as an authority on local sociology and a worker for the assimilation and Americanization of foreign elements coming here; but in this book he denies to the foreign "groups," as he calls them, the right to be called Americans even though their ancestors had fought in the American revolution. In his statistics the man whose name is Carroll or Lynch is still Irish, although both these names appear among the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The same rule applies to the names Lafayette, Barry, Rechanbeau, Henry, Kosciuszko, Sheridan and many others illustrious in the history of this republic.

Mr. Kenngott has evolved a new nationality which he designates as "Natives." In the statistics of the police court and the board of health the natives are designated as Americans; but Mr. Kenngott excludes from this class the natives of foreign parentage and descent; yet if he carries this rule far enough he will find according to his own theories that we are all foreigners and that even those he calls "natives" belong to the "racial groups" whose origin is traced to countries in the old world.

No book and especially no history tainted with race prejudice, pessimism, the distortion of truth or filthy illustrations should ever be placed in the hands of our school children, and as this book is so tainted we strenuously object to its introduction to the public schools.

We believe Dr. Bagley of the school board did the right thing in refusing to vote in favor of the book until he had read it, and we believe that had the grammar masters read it they would have seen ample reason why they should not favor its use in the schools.

In objecting to Mr. Kenngott's book we stand for the good name of our city, for the protection of the schools and the children against any pessimistic or derogatory record of Lowell or her people from whatever race they may have sprung, as we believe Lowell has much of which any citizen may well feel proud; yet her record as given in Mr. Kenngott's book is calculated to make decent citizens ashamed of her. In another article we shall give quotations to prove this and will here cite but a single example of the author's method of disparaging Lowell as a city and a place of residence.

Falsely charging that our population is always shifting and changing, on page 233 of his book he says: "The procession on Merrimack street on a Saturday night is but an index of the procession to and from the city. That scarcely one-seventh of the entire population are voters is another indication of the same instability of the inhabitants who do not stay long enough to gain a residence and become voters."

We may state for Mr. Kenngott's information that the percentage of voters in Lowell is greater than the percentage shown in Lawrence, New Bedford, Fall River and some other cities of the state. Is not the author's charge then a gross slander upon our city? Is it not intimating that nobody wants to live here and that foreigners arriving here find no attraction and, therefore, move out. If this city is such an objectionable place to live in we wonder why the reverend author of this book has clung so tenaciously to his residence here.

In the preface to his book Mr. Kenngott states that the writing of this work was originally undertaken as a partial fulfillment of the conditions for the degree of "Ph. D." in the department of social ethics in Harvard university. If Harvard college is dispensing degrees for sociological work derogatory to cities as this book undoubtedly is to Lowell, it is making a very serious mistake; and unless it reverses its policy in this regard the time will soon come when the possession of such a degree will carry neither distinction nor honor.

Few citizens, we imagine, realized that any large portion of our city stood in danger of destruction by a conflagration for lack of water pressure until the fact was revealed by the fire in Friend Brothers' bakery. Such a state of affairs is outrageous and should be remedied at the earliest possible moment.

SEEN AND HEARD

Isn't it about time that the "cops" were donning their straw hats? The poor fellows look awfully warm in those helmets.

The colleges now are distributing their honorary degrees, but even if a man doesn't get one, so long as the community pronounces him O. K. he's all right.

No man is so rich that he can afford to lose a friend.

The average business man will suffer for a month with a squeaky switch and before he will take a drop of oil and fix it.

When you hear a man sigh complacently: "Oh, well, we all have our failings!" you can make up your mind right away that he thinks his are little ones.

Nobody takes much interest in these lists of the hundred best books, but if somebody should print a list of the hundred worst books he would attract general attention.

Any man who is foolish enough to bet his whole week's salary on the result of a baseball game deserves to lose his wages.

If you don't screw the point of your fountain pen in tight enough, it leaks. If you screw it on harder, it attacks you that you can't unscrew it. Verily, the life of man is full of trouble.

"Thousands of American men are dying from overwork," says a medical authority, but it probably isn't necessary for you to worry about your husband, Madam.

Most men of middle age can remember an old friend who came in years ago and borrowed five dollars, with the promise to return it in a week, and hasn't paid it yet.

Some of the people who complain that the world isn't giving them their due don't realize their luck.

Aren't you waiting eagerly for the day in December to come when you can write the date 12-12-12? Then in thirty-two years, or fourth of November, you can write it 4-11-14.

The old proverb, "Who breaks pays," expresses a good sentiment, but, as a matter of fact, father usually pays for everything anybody in the household breaks.

It is no use for the man who keeps the whip in his hand all the time when he drives a horse to try to persuade any woman that he has a tender heart.

THE LAWYER

The lawyer is a busy man. He makes his money as he can, and often is a baseball fan.

He's always glad to give advice. To any one who has the price. But other people cut no lice.

All those who get into his net. Will need their pocket-books, you bet! He charges all that he can get.

He likes to try a case in court. For him it is a kind of sport. Especially a case of tort.

"And does he ever tell the truth?" Well, yes, sometimes in early youth, and always when he must, in court.

He knows a lot about the law. His clients hear him talk with awe, and so he gets a sturdy law.

Then he goes into politics. "Does he with the politicians mix?" Yes, "And become a statesman?" Nix!

"Then lawyers are a benefit?" Unto themselves, no doubt of it. "Why, not to other people?" Nix!

HUMPHREY O'SULLIVAN

ARRANGING PARADE

Of Massachusetts Men at the Convention

BALTIMORE, June 26.—Because the Baltimore streets are so narrow and are mostly paved with old fashioned cobblestones, they do not encourage marching. The result is that there have been few street parades. Several delegations that arrived Monday night and yesterday morning marched to their hotels from the stations, but last night, except for the Champ Clark parade, they refrained from walking the streets behind bands. One experience in treading the Baltimore cobblestones cured them of a desire for further effort.

The Massachusetts delegation, however, is not to be deterred by any such obstacles. Humphrey O'Sullivan, has his heart set on a parade and the rest of the delegates are going to see that his trip to Baltimore is not spoiled by denying him one.

The committee on what Mayor Fitzgerald calls "celebration and noise," was out last night in search of a band that will come up to the specifications laid out by Mr. O'Sullivan, who has volunteered to pay one band out of his own pocket. They are also debating seriously the style of headgear to be worn by the paraders. At a late hour last night they were not ready to report, but are confident they will have everything in shape by the time the delegation meets today.

The Massachusetts delegation expects to visit every headquarters in town and serenade each one. It will play on favorites, no matter whom they may be inclined to vote for, but will let every democrat in Baltimore know that Massachusetts democracy is on the map, as Mr. O'Sullivan put it.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Court Middlesex Foresters of America was held Monday night, June 25, at 8 o'clock. The meeting was held at the residence of John B. Kennebec, who acted as ranger. The attendance was large and the business of the evening was transacted.

The amendments to the by-laws as reported by the committee were accepted and adopted.

Under the head of new business came the election of officers for the ensuing year which resulted as follows: Chief ranger, John B. Kennebec; sub chief ranger, Eli Crabtree; financial secretary, John J. Magee; recording secretary, James H. Hickey; treasurer, Michael H. McNiff; senior woodward, Frank Brick; junior woodward, Henry Stanton; senior beadle, Wilfred Gagnier; junior beadle, Frank Donovan; lecturer, John H. Connelley. The newly elected officers returned thanks for the honor conferred upon them, and said it would be their aim to work for the court's welfare. The installation will be held at the meeting of July 22.

Street Railway Men's Union. Two well attended meetings of the Street Railway Men's union were held yesterday in their hall in the Union Bank building in Merrimack street. The principal business of the meetings was the election of delegates to the Trades and Labor council for the next term. The following were elected: James Quinn, Edward J. Welch, George Lachance, William Maloney, William E. Sprout, Thomas Cunningham, Michael O'Brien.

A lengthy communication was received from Chairman James B. Carroll of the Industrial Accident Board explaining the workmen's compensation act. President Welch of the Trades and Labor council explained the workings of the Lowell Social Service league and it was voted to affiliate with the league and President William E. Sprout was elected delegate.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Michael's rectory at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Mr. George F. Lynch of this city and Miss Josephine Sullivan of Dracut were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor. The bride who was becomingly attired in white embroidered tulle and picture hat, carried lilies of the valley and was attended by her sister, Miss Katherine Sullivan, who wore white silk tulle and a picture hat and carried Killarney roses. The best man was Mr. John E. Sullivan, a cousin of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony the party retired to the home of the bride's parents, 23 Dixie street, Dracut, where a dainty wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives of the couple.

Manager Carroll is indeed fortunate in securing the services of such a competent cast as is presented by The Harvard Stock company, which is filling in a short summer engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre. The company is composed of real artists who have made themselves popular throughout the east by their meritorious efforts of the past. Their presentation for the first three days of the week is a delightful four-act drama, "The Belle of Virginia," a story of the Civil war, that is unusually interesting. Miss Valarie Valarie, leading woman, is especially good, and the other female characters are adequately interpreted. Henry Grady, leading man, is indeed clever and Charles H. CONLAN-QUINN

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the parochial residence of St. Patrick's church when Miss Katherine Quinn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn, of 222 Cross street, was united in marriage to Mr. Patrick Conlan, a Boston business man, who formerly resided in Lowell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John J. McHugh, assisting pastor. Miss Margaret Quinn, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Albert Conlan, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was becomingly attired in a white satin parlor gown and wore a bridal veil, with a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a large bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid wore a white silk dress and carried a white embroidered net and she carried white sweet peas.

Following the ceremony the bridal party retired to the home of the bride's parents in Cross street, where a reception was held. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the guests were treated to a sumptuous repast. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents. Many out-of-town people were present, including relatives from Boston, Revere, Everett, Lynn.

AUTO PROTECTIVE

IS LAID UP ONCE MORE FOR REPAIRS

The automobile protective of the fire department, which is located in Warren street, is out of commission again, the crank shaft of the machine, breaking yesterday afternoon while the auto was at a fire in the rear of the Middlesex County Training school in No. Chelmsford.

The machine reached the scene of the fire all right, but when the blow was extinguished and one of the members of the company started to crank the machine it was found that the shaft was broken. The car was taken back to the station in Warren street, where the broken shaft was removed and sent to the Knox factory in Springfield. A new shaft will be forwarded to this city as soon as possible.

In order to afford protection to goods in case of fire the rubber blankets have been distributed among several companies.
